In the matter of the Last Will and Testament of William Henry Griffiths:

A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of William Henry Griffiths, who died Dec. 30, 1920, bearing date of January 10, 1908, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, on the 16th day of April 1921 by Eva J. Griffiths, the Executrix therein named; and thereupon comes Marshall W. Bell, one of the subscribing witnesses to said paper writing and makes and subscribes the following affidavit:

"Marshall W. Bell, being duly sworn, says that he is one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper now shown to him and which bears date of January 10, 1908, and purports to be signed and sealed by William Henry Griffiths, as maker and to be signed by Marshall W. Bell and John W. Ford, as witnesses; that affiant drew said paper writing at the request of said William Henry Griffiths, and saw said William Henry Griffiths sign his name at the bottom of said paper writing with the word "Seal thereto, ~~dated~~" which was done by him in affiant's presence and in the presence of the other witness to said paper writing, the said John W. Ford; that thereupon the said William Henry Griffiths stated that said paper writing was his Will to affiant and John W. Ford, in the presence of each other and requested affiant and said Ford to sign their names thereto as witnesses; and at the request of the said William Henry Griffiths, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, affiant and said John W. Ford signed their names to said paper writing as witnesses on the 10th day of January 1921, that said John W. Ford is dead.

Clerk Superior Court.

And whereupon, on said day, said paper writing is exhibited to L. E. Bayless, J. F. Manney and Dot M. Cooper, who being duly sworn do say, and each for himself and herself doth say:

"Affiant was acquainted with John W. Ford, one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper writing now shown to affiant, bearing date of January 10, 1908, and that said John W. Ford is dead; that affiant is well acquainted with the handwriting of said John W. Ford and has often seen him write; that his signature as witness to said paper writing as a witness thereto is in the genuine and proper handwriting of said John W.
Ford, and is his genuine signature as affiant well knew.

"That affiant was acquainted with William Henry Griffiths, maker of the said paper writing, and who is dead, and knows his handwriting and has often seen him write; that the signature to the said paper writing as maker thereof is in the genuine handwriting of said William Henry Griffiths, as affiant well knows and very believes.

A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Daniel L. Holland deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by John W. Walker the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Daniel L. Holland, by the oath and examination of D. S. Russell and P. M. Reagan the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Daniel L. Holland; that said Daniel L. Holland in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 16th day of April 1918.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Daniel L. Holland the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto; and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time, when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto,
