County of Fulton. Last Will and Testament of William L. Fain

I, William L. Fain of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

Item 1. I wish my executors, soon as practicable after my death, to pay my just debts,
and place a suitable monument over my grave.

Item 2. I make the following special requests:

I give and bequeath to my beloved grandchildren in life and those born within the usual period of gestation after my death, each one hundred ($100.00) Dollars in Cash.

I give and bequeath to my beloved grandson and namesake, William Lafayette Fain, Jr., my gold watch, if in life, and if not, to my son, Harry Dwain Fain.

I give and bequeath to my beloved son,
Harry Fain Fain, my razor, shaving stand,
Masonic ring and books relating to Masonry.

and all other books and papers relating to my family history, but should he die before my death, my executors shall be empowered to distribute these articles of personality as they may see fit and proper among my daughters living at the time of my death.

I give and bequeath to my faithful servants, Alice Shover and Sam Brown, each, one hundred ($100.00) dollars, in cash, if living at the time of my death.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Frances, devisee Sain, all my household goods and furniture and domestic animals, but should she die before my death, my executors shall be empowered to distribute these articles of personality as they may see fit or proper upon some fair and equitable division among my daughters living at the time of my death.

Until sold or disposed of by my executors, it is my devise and I so will, that my beloved wife shall have the free use and occupancy of my house and lot known as no. 79 Forest Avenue, in the City of Atlanta, Ga., where we now live, or of any other house in which we may be living at the time of my death, without tax, cost or other charge what ever, for a period of three years, from time of my death, unless sooner sold or disposed of by my executors. I will and direct that my executors pay to her the sum of one hundred dollars monthly, per month for the period of thirty-six months, from the time of my death, for her support, which shall be in lieu of year's support and dower. But should my beloved wife take one or more of our unmarried daughters, who are unmarried at the time of my death, to live with her during said period, or any portion thereof, then I will and direct that my executors pay to her the additional sum of twenty five dollars per month, monthly, but not exceeding that sum, so long as either one or more of our unmarried daughters shall live with her, but not to exceed the period of three years from time of my death.

Item 3. All the residue of my estate, both real and personal, wherever located or situated, of which I may be seized, possessed of or in any wise entitled to, is to be divided into ten equal parts or shares and I devise and bequeath the same as follows: One share or part to my beloved wife, Frances, devisee Sain, and one share or part to each of my beloved children, Helen Frances Sain Casswell, Caroline Sain Dunlap, Susan Kathleen Sain Stringer, Florence L. Sain, Louis Sain Brady, Henry Brown Sain, Mary Lucy Sain, and Dorothy Elizabeth Sain, and one share or part to William Sain and Carolyn Sain, the children of my deceased son, William Mercer Sain, and their share or part shall be held together by their trustees hereinafter named until youngest of said children shall reach the age of twenty five years, but should either die without issue before the youngest reaches the age of twenty five years, the share of such deceased is to be and go to the survivor. But should both die before the youngest shall have reached the age of twenty five years, without issue, then their portion or share is to revert to the residue of my estate.

Item 4. I nominate, constitute and appoint my son-in-law, Edgar Dunlap, as trustee for William Sain and Carolyn Sain, the children of my deceased son, William Mercer Sain. Said trustee is relieved from giving bond and from making inventory and appraisement annual returns or any returns, to the Court of Ordinary or from any Court and from all other formalities required by law. He is authorized and empowered in his discretion to encroach upon the corpus of the estate of his said wards for the purpose of education, maintenance, and support of said wards, or to sell same or any part or portion thereof at either public or private sale, with or without order of court or on advertisement or notice, and to change the form of investment, reinvest, borrow money on his said words estate and execute and deliver all mortgages, deeds, instruments of transfer or other writings necessary to pass the proper title. But said trustee is required to keep a strict accounting to his said words.

Item 8. I nominate, constitute, and appoint as executor of this my will, my son Homer Bain and my son-in-law, Edgar Hughes and William J. Russell, and if either is absent or out of Sutton County or for any other reason fails to qualify or declines to act, then the other one shall be authorized and empowered to act, and if either of the remaining two fails to qualify or declines to act, then the other one shall be empowered and authorized to act as sole executor. They, and each of them or expressly relieved from giving bond and from making inventory and appraisement of my estate and from making annual returns or any returns for the Court of Probate or any Court, and from all other formalities required by law.

I authorize and empower my executors, as aforesaid or my executor, shall only one qualify and act as such, for the purpose of distribution and carrying out the provisions of my will and winding up my estate, to sell at either public or private sale, with or without notice and without advertisement or without any order of any Court, all or any part of my estate real or personal property, and execute and deliver all deeds, instruments of transfer and other writings necessary to pass a proper title or conveyance thereon; to properly execute, sign and deliver any or all deeds or conveyance in compliance with the terms of any outstanding contract, bond, or bonds for title, I may have made or entered into during my life time, fully and amply, and to do all lawful acts in connection therewith, without notice to, publication, or order of any Court as they may deem best.

My said executors shall serve without compensation except they shall be paid necessary expenses incurred in administering and winding up my estate.

And now I commit my body to mother earth, my soul to my father in heaven who gave it, and pray for blessings upon my wife and children.

In testimony thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 13th day of December, 1918.
