 John R. Williamson
 Ordinary

State of Georgia
 County of Fulton
 Court of Ordinary
 I, Arthur M. Marshall, Clerk of the Court of Ordinary, of the County of Fulton, do hereby certify that Hon. John R. Williamson whose name is subscribed to the preceding certificate is the presiding Magistrate of the Ordinary's Court of the County of Fulton; duly elected, sworn and qualified, and that the signature of said Magistrate to said Certificate is genuine.
 Witness my hand and official signature,
 this 18th day of July 1914.

Arthur M. Marshall
 Clerk of the Court of Ordinary

North Carolina
 Cherokee County, I, an exemplified copy of what purports to be the last will and testament of Clark J. Rogers, late of Fulton County, Georgia, duly written and authenticated by the Clerk of the Court of Ordinary of said Fulton County, being this day produced before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, wherein is set out certain real estate which was formerly the property of the testator and was his property at the time of the making of the said last will and testament, and the same appearing, to be duly written and authenticated according to law.
 It is therefore adjudged by the Court that the said exemplified copy of the last will and testament of the late Clark J. Rogers has been duly written and authenticated by the Clerk of the Court of Ordinary of Fulton County, Georgia, and said exemplified copy together with all certificates and proofs of execution, is allowed and the same ordered filed and recorded in the same manner as if the original had been produced, proved and allowed before me.

Witness R. L. Fain, Clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, at office in Murphy, this July 20th 1914.
 R. L. Fain

North Carolina
 Cherokee County, I, in the name of God:
 I Ariel Rogers, of the County of Cherokee and State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, in view of the uncertainty of death, and being desirous of directing the disposition of my earthly effects, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring null and void all other wills and testaments by me at any time made: that is to say:

Item 1. I devise and bequeath all of my property, both real and personal, whereon situate, and of any kind to my beloved wife Emily E. Rogers, for and during the term of her natural life, and after her death as hereinafter set out.

Item 2. I devise and bequeath to my son Richard Lafayette Rogers, of Chickasaw Indian Territory (now Oklahoma) Tract #28 in District #3 of Cherokee County, Tract #285 containing 141 Acre, and also the sum of $500.00, one half of which sum is to be paid by son John A. Rogers, and one half by my son Thomas P. Rogers, which sum is made a lien upon the lands hereinafter respectively devised to each of them: this devise to take effect after the death of my said wife.

Item 3. I devise and bequeath to my son, John A. Rogers, for and during the term of his life, and at his death to his children in fee. Tract #19, Tract #2780, containing 186 Acre, and the following part of tract #25 in said District, viz: Beginning at a stake on the west bank of Nanta River at the mouth of Robin Mill Creek and runs with the West bank of said creek to the State Road. Then with said road to a stake in the center of the present railroad track; then with the center of said railroad track to the South line of tract #26; then with the South line of said tract to Nanta River; then down said river as it meanders to the beginning, containing 12 Acre, more or less; subject to the payment of the sum of $250.00 to the said Richard Lafayette Rogers, as mentioned in item 2 of this will. This devise to take effect after the death of my said wife.

Item 4. I devise and bequeath to my son Thomas P. Rogers, for and during the term of his life, and at his death to his children in fee. The foregoing being the contents of the foregoing will, I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the same is a true and correct copy of the original.

Children of said Thomas P Rogers, to the heirs at law of John A. Rogers and Richard Lafayette Rogers in fee. The land contained in tract #2205, containing 94 acs. more or less, and also the residue of tract #25, after deducting from the same the part thereof heretofore conveyed by me to my daughter, Ursula Murray, being 61 acs. more or less as described in her deed, and the other 2 acs. devised to said John A. Rogers, subject to the payment of the sum of $200.00 to the said Richard Lafayette Rogers as mentioned in item 2 of this Will: but should said Thomas leave children, then the same is devised to such child in fee after the death of said Thomas and the death or marriage of the said Ada; this devise is to take effect after the death of my said wife. I also bequeath to my said son, Thomas P. Rogers all personal property which remains after the death of my said wife; this devise of personal property is made in consideration of his coming for my said wife and myself during the rest of our natural lives, or the rest of the life of either of us.

Item 5-

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my trusty friend John E. Fann, of Murphy, N.C. the Executor of this my last Will and Testament and direct that he be allowed, to qualify and serve without bond.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 1st day of May 1909, in the presence of the witnesses who subscribe below.

Ancil Rogers. (Read)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Ancil Rogers to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other do hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses. This the 1st day of May, 1909.
