Surrogate Court
County of Nassau
In the matter of Proving the last Will and Testament of Edward W. Ladd, deceased, as a Will of Real and Personal Property.

So the Surrogate Court of the County of Nassau:-

The Petition of Louise Berry Wall Ladd, residing at Glen Leon, in the town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, respectfully sheweth. That your petitioner is the Executrix, named in the last Will and Testament of Edward W. Ladd, late of the town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, deceased, that the said last Will and Testament herewith produced relates to both real and personal property and bears date the eleventh day of August, 1905, and is signed at the end thereof by ~~Arthur H. Sligh~~ said testator and by Paul H. Smith now residing at Glen Leon aforesaid and by Arthur H. Sligh now residing at Glen Leon aforesaid as subscribing witnesses That the said deceased was at or immediately prior to his death, a resident of the town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, and departed this life at said town of Oyster Bay in said County of Nassau, on the thirteenth day of August 1905.

Your petitioner further states that that the rules
all the heirs, all the next of kin, of said deceased testator together with their representatives are as follows:

Your petitioner Louise Berry Wall Ladd the widow of said deceased who resides at Glen Leon, in said town of Oyster Bay in said County of Nassau.

Harvey Smith Ladd, a son of said deceased who resides with your petitioner at Glen Leon in the town and County last aforesaid.

Elise Wall Ladd a daughter of said deceased, who resides with your petitioner, at Glen Leon, in the town and County last aforesaid.

Your petitioner also shews that J. Frank Snyder of the village of Glen Leon in said County of Nassau in the State of New York, was designated by the said

Testator in said last will and Testament as the Executor thereof.

That all of the above are of full age and sound mind except said Harry Smith Laddes, who is an infant of more than four teen years of age, to-wit: of the age of eighteen years and upwards; and except the said Elise Wall Laddes who is an infant of more than four teen years of age, to-wit: of the age of fifteen years and upwards.

That no petition for the Probate of said Will or for letters of Administration on said Estate has been heretofore filed in this or any other Surrogate's Court of this State.

Your Petitioner therefore prays that a citation issue to the above named persons to attend the Probate thereof, and that the said last Will and Testament may be proved as a Will of Real & personal property, and that letters testamentary may be issued thereon to the Executor or Executors who may qualify thereunder.

Dated Cayster Bay, Sept 5th 1905-

Louise Berry Wall Laddes
Petitioner,

And Credits of the said Decedent, which have or shall come to your hands possession or Receipt: as also to receive or Cause to be made, Disposal of such inventory, and Cause the same to be signed at the end thereof, by the appraisers and that the same be made and signed that you may receive return thereof to the Surrogate of the said County, - within three months from the date thereof.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the Seal of the Surrogate Court of our said County of Nassau to be hereunto affixed.

Witness His Honor, Edgar Jackson, Surrogate of our said County of Nassau, at the Surrogate Office at Middelburg in the said County, the 10th Day of September in the year one thousand three hundred and five.

Edgar Jackson, Surrogate.

I Edward A. Ladies, of the Village of Glen Cove in the County of Nassau, and State of New York, do make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Louise Berry Wall Ladies, all and every the furniture, carpets, rugs, curtains, hangings, fittings, beds, bedding, linen, silver, silverware, glass, China and table ware, pictures, paintings, engravings, bronzes, Marbles, Books, maps and all household goods, fixtures and utensils whatsoever, in and about my Manse-house known as "Elsinore", at Glen Cove aforesaid and also in and about my City-house known as number three, East 41st Street, in the Borough of Manhattan, in the City and County of New York: to have and to hold the same, and all of them unto the said Louise Berry Wall Ladies and unto her Executors, Administrators, and assigns forever.

Second, As regards the principal sum of Fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars which was in and by the will of Paragraph of the Last Will and Testament of my father, Harvey S. Ladies, bearing date the twenty fourth day of May, 1880, given, devised and bequeathed to trustees named, in trust for my use and benefit during my natural life, with authority and power to me, as provided in the concluding clause of the thirteenth Paragraph thereof, to dispose of said principal fund by my Last Will and Testament or writing hereunto, I do hereby by virtue and in pursuance of such authority and power give and bequeath one half thereof, to-wit: the sum of Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) unto my son Harold Smith Ladies, and one half thereof, to-wit: the sum of Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) unto my daughter-Elise Wall Ladies: to have and to hold the said respective legacies unto my said son and my said daughter, and unto their respective Executors, Administrators and assigns forever, Provided, however, that should either my said son or my said daughter die prior to my own decease, leaving lawful issue him or her surviving then I give and bequeath his or her said respective legacy in and by this article or Paragraph given and bequeathed unto his or her respective lawful issue, then and when alive.

And should either my said son or my said daughter die prior to my own decease leaving no lawful issue him or her surviving, then I give and bequeath his or her respective legacy unto that one of my said two children who shall survive me in addition to the Twenty-five thousand dollars in this article or Paragraph specifically given or bequeathed to him or to her.

Third, I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Louise Berry Wall Ladies one equal and third part or share of all the real, personal and mixed, of every name, nature and description whatsoever, and whatsoever the same or any part thereof shall be situated: to have and to hold the same unto her, my said wife, and unto her heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns forever, this devise and bequest, however, is made to my said wife and shall be accepted by her, not in addition or but in lieu and bar of, all and every her dower and right of dower in any and all real estate of which I shall die seized.

And furthermore so far as it concerns so much

Part or Parts of my said residuary property and estate as shall be, at the time of my decease immoveable or unemployable in my business of manufacturing and selling leather Belting, this devise and bequest shall be subject to, and controlled by the provisions of the Fifth Article or Paragraph of this Will in respect of the said business.

Fourthly, I give devise and bequest unto my said wife Anne Perry Wall Ladies, and unto my friend J. Franks Snyder, and unto the survivor of them, the remaining two thirds of my said residuary property and estate, in trust, nevertheless, for the use and purposes herein after set forth, that is to say:

1. To set apart one equal one-half part or share of said remaining two-thirds, and to invest the same and keep it invested, in such manner and in such lawful and approved securities as to them or to their survivor shall seem sound, secure and sufficiently profitable, and to pay over the entire net income of such equal half part or share, quarterly, on the first day of January, April, July and October in each year, unto my said Son Harvey Smith Ladies, until he shall attain the age of twenty five years, and when my son shall attain the age of twenty five years, then to pay over, transfer & deliver unto him, the principal or Capital of said equal one-half part or share, together with any and all accrued income or interest thereon which I hereby give, devise and bequest unto him and to his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever.

2. To set apart the other equal half part or share of said remaining two-thirds, and to invest the same, and keep it invested in such manner and in such lawful and approved securities as to them or to their survivor shall seem sound, secure and sufficiently profitable, and to pay over the entire net income of such equal half part or share quarterly, on the first day of January, April, July and October in each year, unto my said Daughter Eliza Wall Ladies, until she shall attain the age of twenty five years, -
And when my said daughter shall attain the age of twenty five years, then to pay over, transfer and deliver unto her the principal or Capital of said equal one-half part, together with any and all accrued income or interest thereon, which I hereby give, devise and bequest unto her and unto her heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns forever.

3. In the event that either of my said children should die after the setting apart of his or her share hereunder but before the payment, transfer and delivery to him or to her of the principal or Capital thereof, as above provided, leaving lawful issue him or her surviving, then it is my Will and I. devise, that the portion or share of my said residuary estate to which the deceased child would have been entitled had he or she survived until such payment, transfer or delivery, shall pass to such lawful issue, whom and whom ever, subject to all the provisions of this Article or Paragraph or respect to the custody, management and ultimate disposition thereof.

4. But, in the event that either of my said children should die after the setting apart of his or her share hereunder, but before the payment, transfer and delivery to him or her of the principal or Capital thereof, as above provided, leaving no lawful issue him or her surviving, then I give, devise and bequest one half of his or her share so set apart, unto my said wife, and unto her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever, subject to all the provisions and conditions set forth in the third Article or Paragraph thereof; and the remaining one-half thereof I give, devise and bequest unto my said wife, and the said J. Franks Snyder, in trust for the use and benefit of the survivor of my said two children, and to be held, managed and disposed of in the same manner as above provided with respect to the one-half of two-thirds of my said residuary estate.

5. I hereby expressly authorize and empower the said Trustees, or their survivor, in their, her or his discretion, and if, in their, her, or his best judgment it will be wise, proper and for the true interests and welfare of the beneficiary, as to do, to pay over, transfer and deliver unto my said Son or my said daughter the Principal or Capital of his or her trust funds together with any and all accrued income or interest thereon, at any time after my said son or my said daughter shall have attained majority although he or she shall not have attained the age of twenty five years.

By the same as the foregoing provisions of this fourth Article or Paragraph shall concern so much and such part or parts of my said property and estate as shall be, at the time of my decease, invested or employed in my business of manufacturing and selling leather belting, they and each of them shall be subject to, and controlled by, the provisions of the next following Article or Paragraph of this will in respect of said business.

Fifth, I hereby expressly authorize and empower my Executive and Executor herein after named and the survivor of them, or that one of them who shall qualify, if both of them do not qualify as such, to continue my said business of manufacturing and selling leather belting, now carried on at Glen Cove in the County of Nassau and at other places, for so long a time as they, he or she shall deem expedient, not however beyond such date as shall ultimately be determined upon for the payment, transfer and delivery to my said son or to my said daughter of the Principal or Capital of his or her part or share of my said residuary estate as in the last preceding Article or Paragraph hereof provided; and to that end, to keep invested and employed therein, if they, she or he shall deem necessary, so much of the assets of my estate as shall be so invested and employed at the time of my decease; and ultimately to sell and dispose of the said business and all the plant, Machinery, fixtures, good will, stock and assets thereof, at such price or prices and upon such terms as to them, her or him shall seem most wise and expedient, all things considered.

Sixth, I hereby expressly authorize and empower, my said Executive and Executor and the survivor of them, or that one of them who shall qualify in case both of them do not qualify as such, to sell Mortgage or lease any or all of the real property of which I shall die seized, and to create execute and deliver unto the grantee, Mortgagee, or lessee good and sufficient Bonds, Mortgages, or Leases of the same, to-wit, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Louisa Bony Wall Ladies, and my friend J. Frank Snyder of the County of Nassau, an Executive and Executor of this my Last Will and Testament; and I expressly direct that no Bond or other obligation shall be required of them, or either of them, as security for the faithful performance of their duties as such Executive or Executor, or as Trustees of the several trusts herein and hereinafter created.

Lastly, I hereby expressly revoke, annul and declare void any and all Wills by me at any previous time or times made, and I declare this, and this only to be my Last Will and Testament.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my seal, at the said Village of Glen Leon, in said County of Nassau, this Eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, Edward P. Ladies Real

The foregoing instrument was signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said testator Edward P. Ladies, as and for his Last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as Witnesses, the day and year last above written.
