

North Carolina,
Cherokee County

In the Superior Court,
Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth James, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Victoria James, one of the witnesses thereto; and the due execution thereof by the said Elizabeth James, is proved by the oath and examination of Victoria James and G. W. Rogers the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for themselves depose and saith that they are subscribing witnesses to the paper writing now shown them, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth James, that the said Elizabeth James in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of July 22nd 1907.

And deponent further saith that the said Elizabeth James the testatrix aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last Will and Testament, and these deponents did thereon subscribe their names at the end of said Will as attesting witnesses thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said Testatrix.

And these deponents further saith that at the said time when the said Testatrix subscribed her name to the last Will and Testament as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said Elizabeth James was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information, or belief of these deponents; and further these deponents say not.
