A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of E. P. Hineaid (produced) is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by M. A. Hyatt and L. H. McClure the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said E. P. Hineaid by the oath and examination of R. A. Alkin and Geo Davidson the subscribing witnesses thereof who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of E. P. Hineaid that the said E. P. Hineaid in the presence of each deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown him as aforesaid and which bears date of the 26th day of August 1895.

And the deponents further said that the said E. P. Hineaid the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing to be his last will and testament and each deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereof, and at the request and in the presence of said testator and each of them, and these deponents further said that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereof as aforesaid, the said E. P. Hineaid was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and was not under restraint, to the knowledge of the deponents.

I, John S. Stalcup of the County of Cherokee, and state of North Carolina being near of body, but of sound mind and disposing memory, and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, do therefore make this my last will and Testament in the manner and form following, to wit:

1st I will that my body shall have a decent or Christian burial, and that all my just debts shall first be paid out of my estate.

2nd I will and bequeath to Nancy Stalcup (a Cherokee Indian) one cow, all my household and kitchen furniture of every kind, and my fruit corporation, also the following piece or parcel of land, part of tract 21035 in Murphy Township, as follows:

Beginning on a Black Oak in the gap of Barnett ridge running north south so as to include my dwelling house, barn, to a certain apple tree near the upper of meadow and also to include all the orchard in the meadow, and then run westward to the west line of said tract, then southward with said line to the top of the Barnett ridge, then eastward with said ridge to the beginning.

3rd I will and bequeath to my son William Stalcup and my grand son Burgess Cooke, all the remainder of my real estate to be equally divided between them, and if they fail to agree in the division, they shall each select a disinterested man and these two men if they disagree shall choose another man, and the majority shall decide the division.

4th I will that the remainder of my Grand Children (the Jacob Vines)
