

Each for himself each depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Taylor; that said David Taylor in the presence of these deponents subscribed his name thereto at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of January 4th A.D. 1913.

And these deponents further said that the said David Taylor the testator aforesaid, died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid. Declared the paper writing so subscribed by him and others to be his last Will and Testament, and these deponents known subscribed their names at the end of said Will as attending witnesses thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator.

And these deponents further said that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the end of said last Will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents subscribing their names as attending witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said David Taylor was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of these deponents.

And further these deponents say not.

All true etc.

I, E. P. Kincaid being of sound mind do make this my last Will and Testament.

I will to my wife Flora Kincaid all my real and personal property and it is my will that she sell this land as soon as she can.

I make my wife Flora Kincaid my sole executor.
E. P. Kincaid

I, A. B. Wells an acting justice of the Peace for Cherokee County, N.C. certify that this day appeared before me J. T. Hayes and Emma Hyatt and made oath that they knew the handwriting of E. P. Kincaid deceased, and that the Will on the opposite page is the handwriting and signature of the said E. P. Kincaid.

Before the Clerk

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses purporting to be the last Will and Testament of E. P. Kincaid, deceased, is submitted for probate in open Court by Florence Kincaid, widow of said E. P. Kincaid, and named herein as executrix, but called Flora Kincaid, and it is thereupon proved by the oath of said Florence Kincaid, and by her examination, that the said Will was found by her in a trunk of the deceased, after his death, among the valuable papers, and effects of the said deceased, and that deceased kept in said trunk and in a small cigar box therein his valuable papers and effects, and in said cigar box among other valuable papers and effects, the said Will was found by her, and that said deceased stated to her in August before his death in the month of November, that he would deposit said Will therein; and that said deceased usually called her Flora.
And after it is further proved by the oath and examination of J. T. Hayes, Emma Hyatt and J. H. Kinner who are then competent and creditable persons and witnesses, that they, and each of them, are acquainted with the handwriting of the said

E. P. Kincaid, and have often seen him write and that they, and each of them, truly believe that the name of the said E. P. Kincaid, subscribed to the said Will, and the said Will itself, and every part thereof is in the hand writing of the said E. P. Kincaid, and each of said witnesses doth severally subscribe his (or her) name hereto, as respectfully testified above.

Florence Kincaid
J. T. Hayes
Emma Hyatt
J. A. Kerner

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing is the last Will and Testament of the said E. P. Kincaid for, and the same is hereby ordered to be recorded and filed. This the 2nd day of August, 1913.
