

North Carolina,
Cherokee County.

In Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Irene Warlick, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Wm Ramsey, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Wm Ramsey, that one of the subscribing witness, viz: James Brookshire is out of the State. And it is further proven by the oath and examination of the said Wm Ramsey, and S. V. Rogers, that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said James Brookshire, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said James Brookshire, subscribed as a witness to the said Will, is in the hand writing of the said James Brookshire.

Witness our hands and seals, this the 6th day July, 1910.
Signed in the presence of,

A. A. Fain.

Wm Ramsey.

S. V. Rogers.

The due execution of the above named will is proved by the oath and examination of Wm Ramsey the subscribing witness thereto, who, being duly sworn deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Irene Warlick, deceased; that the said Irene Warlick in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of February 5th 1908.

And the deponent further saith that the said Irene Warlick, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Irene Warlick was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent saith not.

Wm Ramsey.
