

Duly notified, according to the order of Court, to appear, and show cause, if any she has, against the same; objection made there having been withdrawn and it appearing that said instrument is the last Will and Testament of said deceased, and was legally executed, and that said testator was, at the time of making the same of full age and sound mind, and that said petitioners are competent persons to be appointed to said trust.

It is further desired that said instrument be approved and sealed, as the last will and testament of said deceased, and that his testament be issued to said petitioners, by first giving bond without sureties for the due performance of said trust.

Geo F. Lawton
Judge of Probate Court.

In the matter of the last Will and Testament of Francis Kendall.

Upon the foregoing deposition of Frederick E. Withnell before Justice of Peace P. Weston, it appearing that the paper writing dated the 21st day of June 1900, was signed by said Francis Kendall and declared to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of Frederick E. Withnell, Samuel J. Thom and Allen H. Bond, who, at the testator's request ~~were present~~,<sup>signed</sup> paper writing as witnesses in his presence and in the presence, and in the presence of each other; and that said witness, Gleason, is dead, and the signature to said paper writing purporting to be his is in his proper handwriting and is his genuine signature; and the witness Bond, being before the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, and his whereabouts not known; it is adjudged by the Court that the paper writing bearing date of 21st day of June 1900, signed and witnessed as aforesaid original copy of which is annexed to the foregoing deposition which has been recorded in this office, and the whole of which is the last Will and Testament of Francis Kendall, deceased.

It is further ordered and adjudged that said paper writing and its copies, proofs, and other documents attached be registered in the Book of Wills of Chaves County, this April 17th, 1912. All fees Chaves County Court.

State of North Carolina. Chaves County.

I N. A. Bryson being of sound mind, and knowing the uncertainty of my last Will and Testament, do declare this to be my last Will and Testament, (first,) I devise and give to my brother David Bryson all of my property and earthly possessions for his own use and none better, consisting of everything I possess at my death.

In case David Bryson should die before I do, then what I possess shall go to my mother Jane Bryson.

I hereby appoint my brother David Bryson my lawful executor to carry out my wishes according to my last Will.

In testimony whereof I have hereby signed this my last Will and Testament, this Oct 24th, 1910 Witness.

N. A. Bryson (signed)

In the Superior Court
Before the Clerk

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of N. A. Bryson, is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by David Bryson the testator therein mentioned and the execution thereof by the said N. A. Bryson is proved by the oath of R. L. Hampton and Jane Bryson the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn each for themselves doth depose and say, that they are subscribing witnesses to the paper writing now shown them purporting to be the last Will and Testament of N. A. Bryson; that the said N. A. Bryson in the presence of three deponents subscribed her name thereto at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which was date of the 24th day of Oct, 1910.

And these deponents further saith that the said N. A. Bryson the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and these deponents further subscribed their names at the end of said Will and attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in Presence of said testatrix. And these dependents further said, that at said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the dependents' subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said N. A. Bryson was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the dependents, and further these dependents say not.
