

In the name of God, Amen. I John Simmons being in perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God for it, so this 25th day of February 1811 make and publish this my last will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say. I give and bequeath unto sister Charlotte Simmons that piece of land binding on Andrew Duke and John Fisher to her and her heirs forever, and all the rest of my property to be equally divided between my mother and my sisters and brothers. And I hereby make and ordain my brother Thomas Simmons Executor of this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I the said John Simmons have to set my hand and seal the day and year, above written.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said John Simmons the Testator as his last will and Testament in the presence of us ———
Benjamin Person

John + Simmons
Mark

Charles Ballance Inrat

Recorded & Examined the day of

In the name of God Amen. I Hozekiah Farrow son of the State of North Carolina and county of Currituck being weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, thank be God for it, and calling to mind the uncertainty of this mortal life, and that it is appointed for all men once to die, I do make and ordain this Instrument of writing to contain my last will and Testament, disavowing and revoking all other Wills heretofore by me made either words or in writing and this only to be taken as my last will and Testament, that is to say. —

First of all I recommend my soul to God, that graciously receive it, and my body to be buried in a Christian like manner, at the discretion of my executors hereafter named, and as to what worldly estate it hath been pleased God to bless me with I devise and dispose of manner and form following.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth Farrow and her and furniture (her choice) also my son Thomas one bed and furniture bought of Mr. Allison next choice to Samuel Old Bay horse bridle and saddle, and my stage face horse, the rest of my bag and furniture to be divided among my small children, also twelve ewe sheep, also one old pride cow, also all my goats, and also all my hogs except such as may be hereafter disposed of during her life for the support of the small children, also I bind to my beloved wife the use of my Schooner boat, and punt for the term of five years, then for her to be sold by my executors, and one hundred dollars of the said money to be put to the use of schooling my six small children, the remainder of the money for to be divided amongst all children male and female equal alike to my young set I had by my last wife. Also I give my beloved wife one canoe called the old great bottom canoe. I also give to my beloved wife six stocks of bees, also two chests, one that's called her's, and one that commonly stands up, stairs, and one trunk called her's own, one large case of bottles, also Expon work, 10. 1/2. and one large oval table, also half dozen chairs, three Windsor chairs and three flag bottom, during her life or widowhood and no longer and they to be equally divided amongst all my children. I also bind to my beloved wife the use of my house and plantation bounded as follows, beginning at a large live oak against the old place running east covers to the side line, then with that line till a west course will strike Edward Farrow's corner then up Edward Farrow's line so far as to include the old peach orchard then to the first station during her life or widowhood and no longer. — I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Farrow and my son Selah Spencer Farrow one hundred acres of my land at Dock's point joining John Black to be equally divided between them, Thomas to have his choice, to them and their heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Samuel Farrow fifty seven and two thirds acres of land at the pine woods, which is held by red deeds, one from Ousey Williams and the other from James Ousey to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my daughter Angelica Barnett fifty acres of my land at the lower end of my land joining Solomon bread's land across from the sea side to the back line, being one half of my land there, to her and her heirs forever. I give to my daughter Hounning Farrow fifty acres of land joining Angelica being the other half of the same tract to be equally divided between them, to her and her heirs forever. I also give and bequeath to my son Silas Farrow fifty acres of my land, joining Hounnings on the east side across my land from the sea side to the back line, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Farrow fifty acres joining Silas on the east in the same manner, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Samuel Farrow fifty acres of my land joining Thomas on the east in the same manner, to him and his heirs forever. I give to my son Edward Farrow fifty acres of land joining Samuels on the east in the same manner, to him and his heirs forever. I give to my son Jacob Farrow eighty three acres of my land at the ponds, being one third of a tract there, in the westward part, joining Pairs, to him and his heirs forever. I also give and bequeath to my son Hozekiah D. Farrow eighty three acres and one third of my land joining Jacobs on the east side, to him and his heirs forever. I also give and bequeath to my son Pelage J. Farrow eighty three and one third acres of land joining Hozekiah's on the eastward side, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Loranza Durr Farrow fifty acres of land that I bought of Olusey Scarborough at the high pine hills, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Hozekiah D. Farrow the house and plantation, where I now live at the decan of his mother, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my two sons Edward and Jacob, fifty acres of land apiece, the land left their mother by her father, will joining on the sedge to be equally divided, to them and their heirs forever.

I give my two sons Pelage S and Loranza B. a small parcel of land joining John Farrow being one third of a tract of land my father left this widow beginning at the sea side line, then running the side of the old patch to the Head, to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs forever. I also give to my son Loranza B. that part of my land beginning at Edward Farrow's corner, up at the old field then with his line across the sedg by the grave yard to the marsh, so as to include the point of oaks and across the head of the ledge to the ridge to him and his heirs forever. I give to daughter Angelica that part of my land inclosed in a line beginning at Loranza's corner, running across the creek with my wife Elizabeth's line, to the back line, and along the back line northward, so far, as to inclose the point of ridge on the east side of the creek and the point of the old house hill, and from thence round the woods to the beginning of her and her heirs forever. I give to my eight sons, viz. Silas, Thomas, Samuel, Edward, Jacob, Hezekiah D. Pelage S. and Loranza B. all that part of my land northward of Edward Farrow's and that due to my daughter Angelica, up as far as stone line, to them and their heirs forever, for a privilege. I also give my son Thomas one black pied heifer, to him and his heirs forever. Also, I give my son Samuel one yearling with the end of its tail off, to him and his heirs forever. I give my son Hezekiah D. one straight haired cow to him and his heirs forever. I give to my son Edward one black pied unmarked cow, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Jacob one pied cow, in his mother's mark, to him and his heirs forever. I give to my beloved wife Elizabeth one red cow, for the support of the small children. I also give to my daughter Angelica, one horse yearling came of bay mare, to her and her heirs forever. Item I give one bay male got by Joseph Farrow's stud to my son Samuel, to him and his heirs forever. Item I give to my son Thomas two bay mares, his own name, to him and his heirs forever. Also I give the remains of my horse flesh to be divided equally among my small children at the discretion of my executors, that is to say Edward, Jacob, Hezekiah D. Pelage S. Manning, Loranza B. to them and their heirs forever. Item I give to my wife all my pining during her widowhood and then to be divided among all my children—male and female, except the pining around the house, and that to stand. what money that is coming for building the chapel, likewise what money will be coming for my sugar and molasses, coffee and iron and junk, those things when sold. Also, I give to my son Silas thirty dollars to him and his heirs forever, likewise I give to my daughter Angelica thirty dollars to her and her heirs forever. I give to my son Thomas thirty dollars to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Samuel thirty dollars, to him and his heirs forever. Likewise three canoes, one pilot boat, and one little house at Kinnicut, and sundry other perishable articles to be sold at public auction, also I desire my fault boat to be carried away and sold to the best advantage. Likewise, I give to my son Silas one bee hive, Angelica one, Thomas two, and Samuel one, to him and their heirs forever. Also I bind to beloved wife Elizabeth all the rest of my property during her widowhood and no longer, for the maintenance of my small children. I also constitute and appoint my friends Reuben Burrus Edward Farrow and my wife Elizabeth Farrow, my whole and sole executors to this my last will and Testament, as the law shall require, as witnesses my hand and seal this 27th day of February in the year of our lord, one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of us — Hezekiah Farrow, Senr. Seal

Reuben Burrus Just
Edward Farrow
Miles Farrow
John Farrow
Manning Farrow

Recorded & Examined the day of

In the name of God Amen, I Samuel Walker of the county of Kent, survivor, being very sick and weak in or in perfect health of body, and of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make this my last will and Testament, that is to say, principally and last of all I give and recommend my soul to God that gave it me, hoping I shall receive it at the General Resurrection day, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath been pleased God to bless me, I dispose of it in the following manner and form. First of all, I give and bequeath all my lands to my two sons named Samuel Walker and Samuel Walker, to be equally divided, from Calley Watkings' line to Mrs. Ballance's line, the eastward side for Samuel my son, and the westward side for Samuel my son, to inherit at twenty one years of age, no other part of my property my land to be for my wife and other children, untill my sons is of age. All my moveable estate to be equally divided, to my two daughters Fanny and Lovey, Samuel Walker and Samuel Walker, my two sons is to give Thomas Walker, my son twelve pounds a piece, when at age. I do hereby utterly disavow, revoke, disannul, all and every other Testaments, wills, I call this my last will and Testament, and nothing bearing date this the eighth day of February in the year of our lord one thousand 8010. Signed, sealed published, pronounced and declared by the said Samuel Walker in the presence of the said Reuben Burrus Just the day of