I Isaac Bright, being very sick in body, but in my perfect senses and memory, thanks be to God for it, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form as follows: Item. I give the use of my land and plantation to my beloved wife Love Bright, also the use of my negro woman Judy, also the use of my desk and books, and all the glasses and crockery ware, also the use of my old mare and cart, and wheels and harness, also the use of yoke of logs, also the use of, one table, and all the chairs, knives and forks, and six pewter plates, two pewter dishes, and four pewter basons, two iron pots, hooks and trammits, one dutch oven and spider, one skillet, and one hand mill and loam and harness, linen and woollen whips, hoes, plows and axes, also the use of one case and bottle. I give the use of the above mentioned articles to the above mentioned wife as long as she is my widow. Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Love Bright, one bed and furniture, two cows and calves, and eight year old hogs, and one sow and pigs, and as much corn and pork and fat, as will serve her the year, also ten bushels of peas and fifteen bushels of wheat, and three ewes and lambs, and one ram, all the flax and wool, to her and her heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son Richard Bright the manor, plantation, whereon I now live, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I give and bequeath unto my son David Bright one negro boy, named Jack, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Ruth Bright, one bed and furniture, one cow and calf, to her and her heirs forever. Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Caroline Bright, one bed and furniture, one cow and calf. The negro woman Judy and her increase, I give to my two daughters. Item. It is my will and desire that the property that I loaned to my wife after her marriage or death to be equally divided between my son David Bright, and Ruth and Caroline Bright, to them and their heirs forever. Item. It is my will and desire, that all the remainder of my property be sold, and after paying my just debt, the balance of the money arising from the sale, I give and bequeath unto my son David Bright and his heirs forever. Lastly I nominate and appoint my loving wife and Josiah Solloff to be executor, to this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifth day of May in the year of our lord 1812.

I Yarabable Harrison of Currituck county and state of N. Carolina, being weak and low in body, but of sound mind and memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following. First of all I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the ground to be buried in a decent manner, at the discretion of my executor, and as touching what worldly goods it has pleased God to bless me with, I dispose of as follows: Item. I lend unto my beloved wife, during her natural life, all my houses, and that part of my plantation which is called
