I Samuel Fittlett of the state of North Carolina, Currituck County, being in an afflicted state of health and weak in body, but of sound mind, memory, thanks be given to Almighty God, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, Viz. Principally and first of all I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, that gave it, and my body I commend unto the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at discretion of my executors hereafter to be named, and touching such worldly estate, whereunto it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner, and give.

Item. I lend to my beloved wife, Lovey Fittlett (whose maiden name was Lovey Russell, afterwards the lawful wife of Jesse Eldridge, and married to me after his decease, by which reason I still bear, now Lovey Fittlett my wife) the use of the manor, plantation whereon I now live, with the dwelling house and all other out houses belonging to said plantation during her widowhood.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Fittlett, one hundred and thirty acres of land, to the northward of my land adjoining William Eldridge, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Sally Fittlett, one hundred and thirty acres to the southward of my land, to her and her heirs forever. Also I give to said daughter, one negro, named Luis, to her and heirs forever. I give and bequeath to Sam Jesse Fittlett, one hundred and thirty acres in the middle between my son Thomas and Sally Fittlett's land, to him and his heirs forever.

Item. My Will is, that my vessel be sold to pay my debts. Item, All the rest of my property not given away, to be equally divided among my wife as before mentioned, and my three children, Thomas, Sally and Jesse Fittlett.

Item. I do nominate and appoint my brother, Thomas Fittlett, whole and sole executor of this my last Will and Testament, ratifying and confirming this and no other, to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 28 day of January, 1812.
