

The Last Will & Testament of John Daniel deceased. Exhibited & proved in the Superior Court at Spring Term 1829.

In the name of God, amen. I John Daniel of the County of Craven & State of North Carolina, in my right mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament. Firstly, I leave my land and tenements whereon I now reside to be sold at the discretion of my executors, and my land at black hall otherwise, and as much of my chattel property as my executors and wife see proper. I likewise want all my just debts to be paid, afterwards I want all the nett proceeds of my property to be my beloved wife to hold forever for her use and benefit, to dispose of as she pleases only a reasonable support for my mother as long as she lives, which is to be dealt out at the discretion of my executors and further more leave my beloved friend Adam Ettinger whole sole executor to this my last will being ~~testament~~ in my right mind and memory as witness my hand and seal this 26th of March 1827.

The Last Will and Testament of Mary Ballance deceased, proved November Term 1829.

In the name of God, amen. I Mary Ballance of the State of North Carolina, Craven County, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory, blessed be God for the same, I do, make and publish my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say first I lend unto my daughter in law, Miss Ballance her natural life in my land and plantation where I formerly lived, her natural life, to make what use of the places and after her death to be equally divided between my three grand sons, whose names are Samuel Ballance and John Ballance and and Wesley Ballance, also I give and bequeath unto Sarah Ballance my granddaughter one feather bed first choice also one cow and calf first choice and all the remainder to be equally divided between my four grand children, Samuel Ballance and Sarah Ballance & John Ballance and Wesley Ballance and I appoint my grandson Samuel Ballance my lawful executor, testifying
