

In the name of God, Amen. I John Simmons being in perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God for it, so this 25th day of February 1811 make and publish this my last will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say. I give and bequeath unto sister Charlotte Simmons that piece of land binding on Andrew Duke and John Fisher to her and her heirs forever, and all the rest of my property to be equally divided between my mother and my sisters and brothers. And I hereby make and ordain my brother Thomas Simmons Executor of this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I the said John Simmons have to set my hand and seal the day and year, above written.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said John Simmons the Testator as his last will and Testament in the presence of us ———
Benjamin Person

John Simmons
Mark

Charles Ballance Inrat

Recorded & Examined the day of

In the name of God Amen. I Hozekiah Farrow son of the State of North Carolina and county of Currituck being weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, thank be God for it, and calling to mind the uncertainty of this mortal life, and that it is appointed for all men once to die, I do make and ordain this Instrument writing to contain my last will and Testament, disavowing and revoking all other Wills heretofore by me made either words or in writing and this only to be taken as my last will and Testament, that is to say. — First of all I recommend my soul to God, that gave it, and my body to be buried in a Christian like manner, at the discretion of my executors hereafter named, and as to what worldly estate it hath been please God to bless me with I advise and dispose of manner and form following. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth Farrow and her and furniture their choice, also my son Thomas one bed and furniture bought of Mr. Allison next choice to Samuel Old Bay horse bridle and saddle, and my stage face horse, the rest of my bag and furniture to be divided among my small children, also twelve ewe sheep, also one old pride cow, also all my goats, and also all my hogs except such as may be hereafter disposed of during her life for the support of the small children, also I bind to my beloved wife the use of my schooner boat, and put for the term of five years, then for her to be sold by my executors, and one hundred dollars of the said money to be put to the use of schooling my six small children, the remainder of the money for to be divided amongst all children male and female equal alike to my young set I had by my last wife. Also I give my beloved wife one canoe called the old great bottom canoe. I also give to my beloved wife six stocks of bees, also two chests, one that's called her's, and one that commonly stands up stairs, and one trunk called her's own, one large case of bottles, also Expon worth 10. 00. and one large oval table, also half dozen chairs, three Windsor chairs and three flag bottom, during her life or widowhood and no longer and they to be equally divided amongst all my children. I also bind to my beloved wife the use of my house and plantation bounded as follows, beginning at a large live oak against the old place running east covers to the side line, then with that line till a west course will strike Edward Farrow's corner then up Edward Farrow's line so far as to include the old peach orchard then to the first station during her life or widowhood and no longer. — I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Farrow and my son Selah Spencer Farrow one hundred acres of my land at Dock's point joining John Clark to be equally divided between them, Thomas to have his choice, to them and their heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Samuel Farrow fifty seven and two thirds acres of land, at the pine woods, which is held by two deeds, one from Ousey Williams and the other from James Ouel, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my daughter Angelica Barnett fifty acres of my land at the lower end of my land joining Solomon bread's land across from the sea side to the back line, being one half of my land there, to her and her heirs forever. I give to my daughter Honning Farrow fifty acres of land joining Angelica's being the other half of the same tract to be equally divided between them, to her and her heirs forever. I also give and bequeath to my son Silas Farrow fifty acres of my land, joining Honnings on the east side across my land from the sea side to the back line, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Farrow fifty acres joining Silas' on the east in the same manner, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Samuel Farrow fifty acres of my land joining Thomas' on the east in the same manner, to him and his heirs forever. I give to my son Edward Farrow fifty acres of land joining Samuel's on the east in the same manner, to him and his heirs forever. I give to my son Jacob Farrow eighty three acres of my land at the ponds, being one third of a tract there, in the westward part, joining Pairs, to him and his heirs forever. I also give and bequeath to my son Hozekiah D. Farrow eighty three acres and one third of my land joining Jacob's on the east back side, to him and his heirs forever. I also give and bequeath to my son Pelage S. Farrow eighty three and one third acres of land joining Hozekiah's on the eastward side, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son Loranza Burr Farrow fifty acres of land that I bought of Ousey Scarborough at the high pine hills, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Hozekiah D. Farrow the house and plantation, where I now live at the decan of his mother, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my two sons Edward and Jacob, fifty acres of land apiece, the land left their mother by her father, will joining on the sedge to be equally divided, to them and their heirs forever.