The Non captation Will of Joseph Williams deceased was exhibited and proved May Term 1821.

An Motion of Amey Williams to prove the Non captation Will of Joseph Williams deceased Peter Brady being duly sworn in open Court on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God deposed that Joseph Williams deceased on his death bed about the 7th of February 1820 declared that he wished his wife Amey Williams to have the property she brought to him at their Marriage and that all the rest of his property should be divided among his Children - this witness further swears that he does not believe the property belonging to the said Joseph would sell for two hundred dollars whereupon it is ordered by the Court that this be filled and recorded as the Non captation will of said Joseph Williams.

Recorded January 26th 1830.
