

I give my two sons Pelage S and Loranza B. a small parcel of land joining John Farrow being one third of a tract of land my father left this widow beginning at the sea side line, then running the side of the old patch to the Head, to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs forever. I also give to my son Loranza B. that part of my land beginning at Edward Farrow's corner, up at the old field then with his line across the sedg by the grave yard to the marsh, so as to include the point of oaks and across the head of the ledge to the ridge to him and his heirs forever. I give to daughter Angelica that part of my land inclosed in a line beginning at Loranza's corner, running across the creek with my wife Elizabeth's line, to the back line, and along the back line northward, so far, as to inclose the point of ridge on the east side of the creek and the point of the old house hill, and from thence round the woods to the beginning of her and her heirs forever. I give to my eight sons, viz. Silas, Thomas, Samuel, Edward, Jacob, Hezekiah D. Pelage S. and Loranza B. all that part of my land northward of Edward Farrow's and that due to my daughter Angelica, up as far as stone line, to them and their heirs forever, for a privilege. I also give my son Thomas one black pied heifer, to him and his heirs forever. Also, I give my son Samuel one yearling with the end of its tail off, to him and his heirs forever. I give my son Hezekiah D. one straight haired cow to him and his heirs forever. I give to my son Edward one black pied unmarked cow, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Jacob one pied cow, in his mother's mark, to him and his heirs forever. I give to my beloved wife Elizabeth one red cow, for the support of the small children. I also give to my daughter Angelica, one horse yearling came of bay mare, to her and her heirs forever. Item I give one bay male got by Joseph Farrow's stud to my son Samuel, to him and his heirs forever. Item I give to my son Thomas two bay mares, his own name, to him and his heirs forever. Also I give the remains of my horse flesh to be divided equally among my small children at the discretion of my executors, that is to say Edward, Jacob, Hezekiah D. Pelage S. Manning, Loranza B. to them and their heirs forever. Item I give to my wife all my pining during her widowhood and then to be divided among all my children—male and female, except the pining around the house, and that to stand. what money that is coming for building the chapel, likewise what money will be coming for my sugar and molasses, coffee and iron and junk, those things when sold. Also, I give to my son Silas thirty dollars to him and his heirs forever, likewise I give to my daughter Angelica thirty dollars to her and her heirs forever. I give to my son Thomas thirty dollars to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Samuel thirty dollars, to him and his heirs forever. Likewise three canoes, one pilot boat, and one little house at Kinnicut, and sundry other perishable articles to be sold at public auction, also I desire my fault boat to be carried away and sold to the best advantage, likewise, I give to my son Silas one bee hive, Angelica one, Thomas two, and Samuel one, to him and their heirs forever. Also I bind to beloved wife Elizabeth all the rest of my property during her widowhood and no longer, for the maintenance of my small children. I also constitute and appoint my friends Reuben Burrey Edward Farrow and my wife Elizabeth Farrow, my whole and sole executors to this my last will and Testament as the law shall require, as witnesses my hand and seal this 27th day of February in the year of our lord, one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of us — Hezekiah Farrow, Senr.
 Reuben Burrey Junr.
 Edward Farrow
 Miles Farrow
 John Farrow
 Manning Farrow

Recorded & Examined the day of

In the name of God Amen, I Samuel Walker of the county of Kent, survivor, being very sick and weak in my perfect health of body, and of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make this my last will and Testament, that is to say, principally and last of all I give and recommend my soul to God that gave it me, hoping I shall receive it at the General Resurrection day, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath been pleased God to bless me, I dispose of it in the following manner and form. First of all, I give and bequeath all my lands to my two sons named Samuel Walker and Samuel Walker, to be equally divided, from Calley Watling's line to Mrs. Ballance's line, the eastward side for Samuel my son, and the westward side for Samuel my son, to inherit at twenty one years of age, no other part of my property my land to be for my wife and other children, untill my son is of age. All my moveable estate to be equally divided, to my two daughters Fanny and Lovey, Samuel Walker and Samuel Walker, my two sons is to give Thomas Walker, my son twelve pounds a piece, when at age. I do hereby utterly disavow, revoke, disannul, all and every other Testaments, wills, I call this my last will and Testament, and nothing bearing date this the eighth day of February in the year of our lord one thousand 8010. Signed, sealed published, pronounced and declared by the said Samuel Walker in the presence of the said Reuben Burrey Junr. the day of