I Aaron Flora of the county of Currituck and state of North Carolina, being very sick and weak of body but of a sound mind and disposing memory, thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the volatility of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, that is to say, principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that give it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent christian burial at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God; and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, demise and dispose of the same in the following manner, and form. First, I give any bequeath to my brother Lazarus Flora all my part of the land I owed by my father to him and his heirs forever. Item. I give and bequeath to my sister Julia Flora and Charloty Flora all my parts of the perishable estate that I owed by my father. I do hereby ordain and appoint my well beloved mother, Lazarus Flora my executor to this my last will and Testament. Given under my hand and seal this 11th day of March 1814.

And knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, in manner and form as follows. February the 13 day 1815. And first of all I give to my well beloved wife Lydia Cooper two feather beds and furniture and two cows and calves, and two ewe and lambs and one linen wheel and one sow and pigs and one large chest and one large iron pot, I also give her my loom and harness &c. I also lend her her the use of my hand mill, during her life or widowhood, and then to return to my son Benjamin Cooper. I also give to my well beloved wife as above intimated, all the corn and pork and wheat I have for the support of her and her family, that she hath at this time with her. I give to Sally Gregory my wife's first daughter one cow and calf and one ewe and lamb and one linen wheel, and if she die without heir lawfully begotten of her body, the same to be equally divided between my two younger
