

The Last Will and Testament of Luke Gregory Dec
Exhibited and proved at February Term 1827.

In the name of God Amen. Luke Gregory of this county of Currituck and State of North Carolina, being weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following. First of all my will & desire is that my land on or joining the Albemarle sound be sold at the discretion of my executor hereafter named, also ~~the~~ the balance of all my estate real or personal, except what I hereafter give unto my beloved wife Polly Gregory & my son Luke Gregory & the money arising from such sales to be appropriated to pay all my just debts. Secondly I give unto my beloved wife Polly Gregory, two feather beds and furniture, her first choice of all the iron ware relative to cooking, one cow named Pide and her oldest calf, all the crockery ware all the chairs, her first choice of the Linned Wheels and the big or wooden wheel, all the farming tools, one horse cart, seven black shots, four pigs, negro Mauch & negro Martin & all the provision on hand viz corn pork, bacon & the like. & for her to have all the rents or profits or issues arising from the land for this present year that I left to be sold and all the poultry on hand. And thirdly I give and bequeath unto my youngest son Luke Gregory one man named Nancy Rony.

Lastly and finally my will and desire is after all my just debts are punctually paid as above specified for my beloved wife Polly Gregory to have the balance of my estate either real or personal, except the above mentioned man to her only, benefit and behoof forever. Lastly I nominate constitute and ^{fully} appoint my worthy friend Nathan H. Gregory my whole and sole executor to this my last will and testament as written by my hand and seal February 17th 1827. Signed, sealed acknowledged and signed before me in the presence of
 Luke Gregory
 John M. Corbell
 Samuel Gregory

State of North Carolina, Currituck County Court February Term 1827.
 This Last Will and Testament of Luke Gregory deceased was proved in open Court by the oaths of Samuel Gregory and John M. Corbell subscribing witnesses thereto in open Court in due form of Law and ordered to be recorded. When the executor Nathan H. Gregory came into open Court and qualified in due form of Law and ordered that letters testamentary issue.

Spencer Hall Clerk
 James G. Hall Deput

Recorded & Examined October 1827
James G. Hall Deput Spencer Hall Clerk
The Last Will and Testament of Edmund
Barnard Decd proved at February Term 1827.

In the name of God Amen. I Edmund Barnard being of sound and perfect mind and memory (blessed be God) do this third day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner as follows: First I lend to my wife Sally during her natural life a part of my plantation beginning at the big Bridge the line between me Samuel Ferebee & Joseph Logg running down the Road a ~~to~~ thirty course to a ditch called gum ditch thence with the said ditch to the woods thence through the woods a straight course to the back line, thence with the back line to the big ditch, thence with the said ditch to the first station. Also I lend her one negro boy called Mulesifer one do named Caesar during my widow. Item I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sally one negro woman & child Logg Moses, one old horse & one young meadow with a blaze face, six years, two sows, twelve shots one old cow, one young cow, one speckle heifer, one horse cart one steer yielding first choice. I give her one half of the household and kitchen furniture one half of the farming utensils, all the Pork, all the corn in the small ear to her and her heirs, I give my wife one winding chair & carpet stand. I give and bequeath to my two children Mary and Mithought by all of my land and for it to be equally divided between them, also the remainder of my negroes of ascending