The last will and Testament of Samuel Creekmore dec^d.
Exhibited and proved at 11th term 1817.

In the name of God. AMEN. I Samuel Creekmore of the county of Currituck and state of North Carolina, being now sick and in low state of health, but of a perfect and sound mind, and memory, and calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, and after death appear in judgment, and first of all I recommend my spirit into the Almighty's hand from whence it came, and my body to be buried in such christian like manner as may be to the discretion of my Executors hereafter mentioned, and as to my worldly Estate I give, devise and bequeath in the following manner Viz. Item. I give and bequeath unto Elizabeth Creekman daughter of Moses Creekman, one half of my land on the north side to her and her heirs lawfully begotten of her body forever, and in case Elizabeth dies without lawful heirs, to go to the next. Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Nancy Creekman, the other half of my land, the south side, to her and her heirs forever.
I desire the land to be equally divided between the two, by a line running east and west, the south part to Nancy, and the North to Elizabeth. Item. I lend the use of all my land unto my beloved wife. Ann Creekmore during her natural life, to occupy and live on peaceably, without being interrupted.
Item. I leave the use of all my property, within doors, and without, to my beloved wife during her natural life, and for to support her and after paying all my just debts and settling my business, at my wife's death, for all the residue of my estate to be equally divided between Nancy and Elizabeth Creekman.
And lastly of all, I make, constitute and appoint my wife Samuel O'Neal and Sarah Payner my true and trusty Executors to this my last will and Testament, ratifying this and no other to be my last will and Testament, disannulling all and every other Testamental will or wills, gifts &c. made or done by me.

Exhibited and proved May term 1818

State of North Carolina. In the name of God, AMEN: This third Currituck County. I day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen. I George Howard being weak in body, but of a sound memory, thanks be to God for it, I constitute and ordain this to be my last will and Testament, revoking and annulling all others that has been made by me, either by word or writing, so that this shall be taken for my last will and Testament, in manner and form as follows. First, I will that all my last dues and demands may be paid, or made convenient to be paid. It is my will and desire that all my property within doors and without doors, should be sold by my Executor for six months credit, and the money arising from the sale, for my wife to have one third, which part the law allows her, and the other two thirds of the money, to Helen Simmons, to she and her heirs forever; but if the said Helen Simmons should die of a poxage ~~and~~ for the property to go to Charlotte Simmons, and if the said Charlotte Simmons should die before she inherits it, for the property to return back to the giver. I also constitute and ordain my friend Huger Bell to be my whole sole Executor, and it is my desire that he will not shew no favours further than the law
