

The last will and Testament of Daniel Morris deceased
Exhibited and proved February Term 1816.

In the name of God. I Daniel Morris of the county of Currituck being sick and weak of body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian burial, at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate whereas it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give demise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First I give and bequeath to my dear beloved wife Rebecca Morris all my estate both within doors and without doors, to her heirs forever. I do hereby ordain and appoint my dear beloved wife Rebecca Morris my Executor to this my last will and testament. Given under my hand and seal this second day of February 1816.

The last will and Testament of Elizabeth Lee dec^d
Exhibited and proved at February term 1816 —

In the name of God. AMEN. I Elizabeth Lee of the county of Currituck and state of North Carolina, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory, do make declare and publish this my last will and testament in manner following. Viz. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be fully paid and satisfied, and I desire that my moveable estate be sold for six months credit, and proceeds to be applied to the payment of my debts, and if anything remains thereon I give it to my son John Lee. My will and desire is that my land and plantation be equally divided between my two sons John and George by a line to begin in the branch next to my Mrs. Timmons' and running an easterly course through the land so as to be an equal number of acres on the north and south. My will and desire is that my son John have the one half on the south and next the marsh and pocoson, and that my son George have the other half on the north. In nomine and appoint Doctor David Jones my and sole Executor of this my last will and testament, revoking and disannulling all former wills by me made.

The last will and Testament of Thomas Garrett deceased
Exhibited and proved at February Term 1816.

In the name of God. AMEN.

I Thomas Garrett of the state of North Carolina and county of Currituck, being weak in body, but of a sound mind and memory, thanks be to God for the same, but as I know I have to die and leave the world behind, I have thought proper and do declare and make this instrument of writing to be my last will and testament in manner and form to wit. And first I give my soul to God that gave it me. I then resign my body to the disposal of my executors in hopes to be buried in a Christian like manner. Item. I give all my just debts to be paid out of my estate and in order to enable my executors so to do. Item. I give the half of the Schooner American Coaster which I own in partnership with Jonathan Lindsey Esq: to be sold for six months credit the money arising from said sale thereof to be applied to the use of paying debts or so much thereof as will be sufficient, and if that will not be sufficient then such other property as my executors may think most proper. Item. I then lend to my wife Sally Garrett the use of my plantation whereon I now live during my natural life; also I lend to her the use of all my stock of all kind, to say hogs, cattle, hens, sheep &c. so long as my said wife may live single, and should my said wife Sally Garrett die or marry, then my will and devise is that all my said stock of all kinds whatsoever, should be sold and the money arising therefrom be equally divide among my children then living. Item. I then lend to my wife the use of all my plantation and of plowing tools including her widowhood, and no longer say bents, plows, hoes, axes. Item. I then give to my said wife one feather bed and furniture, one large chest to her own disposal forever. Item. Should my said wife marry, then in that case I give to my wife one house and riding chair, two cows and calves, one sow and pigs, two ewes and lambs, also a child part of all my moveable estate. Item. I then give to my son Thomas Garrett all full tract of land I bought of William Hobbs, say fifty acres more or less to him and his heirs forever, when he the said Thomas shall come to age of twenty one years; also I leave my wife the use of one third part of the cleared land on the plantation I purchased of said William Hobbs the northward side also. I leave the use of the whole plantation to my wife until my son Thomas is twenty one years old. Item. I then give unto my son Thomas one feather bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever. Item. At the death of my said wife, I give to my son Benjamin the plantation whereon I now live, say all that tract of land I bought of William Taylor, say eighty acres more or less. Item. I give to my son John Garrett all that tract of land I hold on the north Banks laying on the east side of Jane Gile, about say two hundred acres more or less. Item. I also lend to my Sally Garrett the use of all my negroes, say George, Obad, Jonathan, Rean, Polly and Prince, void so long as my said wife should live a widow and no longer, and at the death or marriage of my said wife I dispose of the above mentioned negroes in the following manner. Viz. I give to my son Thomas Garrett one negro girl called Rean, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I then give to my son Benjamin my negro boy called Sampson, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I then give to my son Gasper Garrett my Island land I bought of Rich Ethridge, also I give to my said son Gasper one negro girl called Polly, one feather bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever. Item. I then give to my daughter Dorcas one negro man called Jonathan, one feather bed and furniture to her and her heirs. Item. I then give to my son John Garrett my negro man by the name of big Obad, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I then give to my son Benjamin one feather bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever. Item. I then give to my son Gasper one half dozen silver table spoons marks TSG to him and his heirs forever. I also leave my negro man George to be sold at the discretion of my wife, and should my son Gasper be thought incompetent to my will is that he should have two hundred dollars out of my estate for the use of schooling him as far as it should go. Item. I then give to my Thomas one small pair of brass headed iron. Item. I then give to my son Benjamin one large pair of brass headed iron to him and his heirs forever. Item. I also give to my son Benjamin at the death of my wife my mahogany sofa, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I then lend to my wife the use of all my household and kitchen furniture, during her natural life or widowhood, and at the death or marriage of my said wife is that all such property as I have not already given away that they be sold and the money arising therefrom be applied to the use of my son Joseph in schooling or other support, as may be needed in case his mother dies or marries ye. Item. I give to my said wife all my crop stock of provision which I now have on hand for the year of 1815 for the use and support of my family and children also all such money as may be due me I wish to go to pay of such debts as I owe my Daniel Poyner $116 dollars, Lemuel Basnett $200 from others $100. Item. I also give to my son John Garrett one feather bed and furniture, one large tea table, also my small hunting gun which he has already received, and lastly I make constitute and appoint Mr. Thomas Poyner and my beloved wife Sally Garrett my lawful executors of this my last will and Testament, ratifying this and no other to be my own last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of December 1815.
