The last will and Testament of Josias Nicholson deceased
Exhibited and proved at November term 1818

In the name of God, amen. I Josias Nicholson of the county of Currituck and State of North Carolina, being in reasonable health and of perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God for it, which I do make this instrument of writing, my last will and Testament; and calling to mind that it is ordained for man once to die, I do dispose of what little estate it hath been pleased God to give me, in the following manner. Item. The first of all I give and bequeath unto my son James Nicholson Ward all land, also three feather beds, and all the rest of my estate within doors and without, to him and his heirs forever. (Excepting the use of my estate to my wife Franky Nicholson her natural widowhood. And I leave my wife Franky my whole Executor to this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have herunto set my hand and fixed my seal this twenty third day of September one thousand eight hundred and ten.

The last will and Testament of Thomas Simmons deceased
Exhibited and proved at February term 1819

In the name of God, amen. I Thomas Simmons of the county of Currituck, being sick and weak in body, but of a sound disposing mind and memory, and calling to mind that it is appointed for man once to die and after death a Judgment, and wishing to dispose of my worldly property which I am about to do in the following manner. First I recommend my soul to Almighty God who first gave it me, and as touching my worldly estate, I dispose of it in the following manner. Item. I give unto my sister Susannah Boyner one hundred dollars to her and to her heirs forever. Item. I give unto my sister Susannah Boyner's children the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars for the purpose of educating them, when they arrive at a sufficient years of age to receive schooling, and that the money shall remain in the hands of my said executor hereafter mentioned until they shall need it for to pay for their schooling, and the said money shall only be taken out of his hands as it is needed to pay for their education, and for no other purpose, to them and their heirs forever. Item. I give to Thomas S. Simmons the sum of three hundred dollars for the purpose of educating him when he comes to arrive to the age sufficient to receive his education to him and to his heirs forever. Item. I give unto Nicholas Lunn, Rebe Lunn, Polly Lunn and

William Lunn, Susannah Lunn, John Lunn, Elizabeth Lunn the sum of six hundred dollars to be equally divided between them and to their heirs forever. Item. I give unto and to Esther Lunn fifty dollars, to her and to her heirs forever. Item. I give unto Polly Sanderson the wife of Thomas Sanderson the sum of fifty dollars to her and to her heirs forever. Item. I have the remainder of my estate in the hands of my Executor hereafter mentioned for the purpose of paying my just debts, and if a balance should remain after my debts is paid, I give the said balance or sum to my executor hereafter mentioned, let the balance what it will, to him and to his heirs forever. My reason for doing this is that he has always proved kind and obliging to me both in sickness and in health and I do this for the respect I bear unto him for the same, and if the said balance shall fall short of paying my debts, it is my wish desire that the sum wanting should be redrafted from the above gifts of Thomas S. Lunn and the gifts to my sister Susannah Boyner's children equally alike. — I do nominate, constitute, make and appoint my friend Thomas Sanderson my whole and Executor of this my last will and Testament, disavailing all other will or wills heretofore by me made, and ratifying and confirming this to be my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of January 1819

The last will and Testament of Daniel Tolson deceased
Exhibited and proved at May term 1819

In the name of God, Amen. I Daniel Tolson of the State of North Carolina and county of Currituck, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last and Testament, that is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in a decent Christian burial, at the discretion of my executor, nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith I have pleased God to bless me in this life I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Tolson one riding horse, ^{one} saddle and bridle, and one cow and cow live (during her widowhood) and the other half I give unto my beloved son Valentine Tolson, also I give unto my daughter Charlotte ^{one} wheel and one ewe sheep, also I give unto my grand son James Midgett fifty acres of land in the Savanney, joining Andrew Barrington's. also I give unto my grand son Benjamin Tolson when he arrives
