

In the name of God Amen.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son John Bowdy one dollar to him and his heirs forever

Then I give and bequeath unto my Love (James) Bowdler the price
I and I bought of John Heath to him and his heirs them I give ~~nothing~~ unto my wife Maria & my two kids and furniture to her and her heirs

Item I give unto my daughter Titah Bowdy our bed furniture Item I give unto my wife Hizia Bowdy, son Spence Bowdy

Now I give unto my wife Rejia Bowdy, son Willoughby Bowdy, daughter Clackey Bowdy, and daughter Selah Bowdy all my cattle that I have not given away to be equally divided amongst them all my will and desire is that if either of my three children Willoughby, Clackey or Selah should die without lawful heir or heirs begotten of their body then part of said cattle to go and descend to the surviving ones —

I then give unto my wife Kijia Bowdij son Milloughly Bowdij, daughter Blahmy Bowdij, daughter Lelah Bowdij my two mares to them and their heirs -

What I give unto my son will oughtly bowdly my love to him and his heirs

Item Lastly I nominate and appoint Thomas Rogers Esq^r my Executor to this my last will and testament. In Witness whereof I the said John Bowdley Esq^r have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17 day of April 1824 signed, sealed, pronounced published and declared by the Testator to be his Last Will and Testament in presence of Test D. B. Lindsey

My private Servant Thomas

(Signed) John Dowdell

Recorded and examined this 6th day of July, 1825
J. KASSELK Per James G. Hull 60th

In the name of God amen; I solemnly, While being of sound and disposing mind and memory blessed be God do make and order this instrument of writing to be my last will and testament in manner and form following -

And I give and bequeath to "Ewen Ball and the land and marsh on Red Crow Island with all the stock thereon and one piece of land and marsh on Macchie Island near Bellocross Bay to him and his heirs forever.

I then give and bequeath to my grand son William White Salmon the North part of the same and plantation whereon I now live and the North half of my apple orchard and one half of my yeupon nursery bounded as follows beginning at a stone on the Round side a corner between the aged White and the heirs of Daniel Duntun deed things entirely along the round side to a chimney post on the bank head. Thence westerly to an oak a corner between the aged White and the heirs of Moses Capps deed thence southerly and Easterly various courses of the said White line to the first station, containing sixty five acres more or less to him and his heirs forever and if he die without heirs lawfully begotten of his body to his sister Harriet Robinson and her heirs then I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Mary Duntun the remainder part of my land and plantation whereon I now live with south half of my apple orchard and one half of my grape vine nursery to contain sixty five acres more or less to her and her heirs and if she die without heirs lawfully begotten of her body to go to her sister Lizzy Duntun and her heirs forever then I give and bequeath to my Grand son Lemmie Slaton forty acres of Land and marsh and swamp joining Beejock Bay and Nathan Robertson land with the building being part of the Land and plantation formerly belonging to Adam Robertson dead to him and his heirs forever then the remainder of the land formerly belonging to Adam Robertson dead joining to her Brabbell that I have not given to Lemmie Slaton I leave to be sold by my executor for six months credit and the money to be divided between Zilpah Berry and Lizzy Duntun and their heirs then I give and bequeath ~~to~~ to my beloved wife Mary

White fifty silver Dollars and one cent - then I give and bequeath to my two Grand sons James Ballance and Lem Ballance one piece of Land on the head of Falls creek after the death of my wife Mary White to be equally divided between them and their heirs then I give and bequeath to Edmund Douglass son of Sampson Douglass three acres of Land on the west side of the Road that was Gregorys Land at Falls creek to him and his heirs forever then All the remainder of my property which is not already given away I leave to be equally divided into four parts one fourth part I give to the heirs of Daniel Duntun dead and their heirs - one fourth part I give to Lem Ballance and his heirs - one fourth part I leave to my wife Mary White during her natural life and after her death to be divided between the heirs of Daniel Duntun dead Lem Ballance and his and Caleb Slaton and his heirs - Lastly I hereby constitute ordain and appoint my trusty friendly Thomas Poyne Senr Caleb Chividge and Cuthbert whole and sole Executors to this my last will and testament as witness my hand and seal this 18th day of September 1824

signed sealed pronounced & declared in presence of Hosea Ball Jurat
Thomas Brumsey Jurat

(signed) Willoby White

Recorded and examined July 7th 1825. Edw. H. Hall
The Last Will and Testament of Edward Bunnell deceased Exhibited and proved Feb^y Term 1825

In the name of God amen - I Edward Bunnell being of sound mind but weak in body and knowing that it is appointed for all to die make this my last will and testament annulling all other - I request that my body be decently buried and my body to mingle with its mother dust & commend my soul to him that save it then I give unto my son William Bunnell all the notes which I hold against him as his part of my estate also my wearing cloths then I give unto my beloved son Isaac Bunnell one bed and furniture one cow and calf first choice two yew and 2 Lambs the track or piece of Land on which I live bounded on the east by the road and on the west by the creek or all my land on the west side of the road where I live, I also give unto Isaac the Bush Horse with the conditions that Isaac shall let William Bunnell have the use of the horse as long as the horse shall live

then I give unto my beloved son John Bunnell the tract of Land on the east side of the road one cow and calf one bed & furniture two swine also I give him my negro called Mels, one shut and first choice