The last will and Testament of Wilson Woodhouse dec'd.
Exhibited and proved at Aug. Term 1837.

In the name of God. Amen. I Wilson Woodhouse of Cumberland county in the State of North Carolina, being weak in body, but of a sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following.
In primis. I give and recommend my soul to almighty God, who first gave it to me and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in life, I give and devise and dispose of in the following manner, and form.
I give and bequeath unto my two sons Daniel Woodhouse and Wilson Woodhouse all my lands and plantation whereon I now live adjoining the lands of Thomas Forney on the north, and the land of Samuel Woodhouse and Harlow Woodhouse on the south, and binding our childrens Greys line on the West, equally share and share alike my son Daniel Woodhouse to have the south part of said land, and if either of my sons should die before he has an heir lawfully begotten, his part to go to the surviving one, them and their heirs lawfully begotten, for ever. I leave the price of land that I bought of Thomas Saunders son, and Anna Saunders, containing twenty five acres, more or less, reference being made to the deed for the boundaries, to be sold by my Executor hereafter mentioned for six months credit, and the money arising from the sale of said land to be equally divided between my two sons Daniel and Wilson Woodhouse, I leaving my wife Polly Woodhouse will convey and give by deed to my two sons or otherwise, all of that tract or parcel of land that fell to her by the death of her mother, there and in that case the above land not to be sold, but to be equally divided between them to them and their heirs forever. I leave the price of land that I bought of Thomas Woodie the son of William Woodie, to be sold by my Executor for six months credit, at Publick or private sale, leaving it at the discretion of my said Executor and I do hereby authorize and empower my said Executor to make a deed of conveyance for the same to the purchaser with all the appurtenances and boundaries of said land, reference being had to the deed for said boundaries, with all of my right and little in and to the said premises above alluded to and mentioned, as I could do were I personally present myself, and the money arising from the sale of said lands, to be equally divided between my two sons Daniel and Wilson Woodhouse, to them and their heirs forever, and if either of them should die before they come to lawful age, his part to go to the surviving one I leave. I give to my son Daniel Woodhouse one negro man named Jack, to him and his heirs only I reserve and lend the use of said negro to my wife Polly Woodhouse during her widowhood and no longer, and if my son should die before he comes to full age, then the said negro to go to my son W. Woodhouse. I give to my Wilson Woodhouse one negro girl named Judy, only I lend the use of said girl to my wife Polly Woodhouse, during her widowhood, and no longer, and if my said son should die before he comes to lawful age, then for her to go his brother D. Woodhouse And I give to my said son W. Woodhouse one set of silver tea spoons, one feather bed and furniture, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I give to my son G. Daniel Woodhouse, two feather beds and furniture. Item. I give to my two sons Daniel and Wilson Woodhouse, and my wife Polly Woodhouse, all my stock of all kind equally divided, only I stand my wife the use of their parts of my stock during her widowhood, to them and their heirs forever. I give all my notes of hand and accounts to my two sons Daniel and Wilson Woodhouse, equally between them for the purpose of schooling them. I leave all the remainder of my property not given away to be equally divided between my two sons Daniel and Wilson Woodhouse and my wife Polly Woodhouse, accepting one feather bed and furniture. I give to my wife Polly Woodhouse, and her heirs. I stand to my wife Polly Woodhouse all of the parts of my two sons of the above, to my said wife during her widowhood, and at her marriage or death, then the division is to take place, to them and their heirs forever.

I do nominate, constitute, make and appoint Thomas Payner, my whole sole Executor of this my last will and Testament. The witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of Feb^y 1817.

The last will and Testament of Samuel Creekmore dec^d.
Exhibited and proved at 11th term 1817.

In the name of God. AMEN. I Samuel Creekmore of the county of Currituck and State of North Carolina, being now sick and in low state of health, but of a perfect and sound mind, and memory, and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, and after death appear in judgment, and first of all I recommend my spirit into the Almighty hand from whence it came, and my body to be buried in such christian like manner as may be to the discretion of my Executors hereafter mentioned, and as to my worldly Estate I give, devise and bequeath in the following manner Viz. Item. I give and bequeath unto Elizabeth Creekman daughter of Moses Creekman, one half of my land on the north side to her and her heirs lawfully begotten of her body forever, and in case Elizabeth dies without lawful heirs to go to the next. Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Nancy Creekman, the other half of my land, the south side, to her and her heirs forever.
I desire the land to be equally divided between the two, by a line running east and west, the south part to Nancy, and the North to Elizabeth. Item. I lend the use of all my land unto my beloved wife. Ann Creekmore during her natural life, to occupy and live on peaceably, without being interrupted.
Item. I leave the use of all my property, within doors, and without, to my beloved wife during her natural life, and for to support her and after paying all my just debts and settling my business, at my wife's death, for all the residue of my estate to be equally divided between Nancy and Elizabeth Creekman.
And lastly of all, I make, constitute and appoint my wife Samuel O'Neal and Sarah Payner my true and trusty Executors to this my last will and Testament, ratifying this and no other to be my last will and Testament, disannulling all and every other Testamental will or wills, gifts &c. made or done by me.

The witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this second day of July 1817. Signed, sealed and delivered proved at 11th term 1817.

In the name of God. AMEN. I Jacob Perkins of the county of Currituck and State of North Carolina, being in a declining state, and about to leave home on a journey, calling to mind the mortality of man, do make and order this my last will and Testament in manner and form following. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 7th day of October 1816.
I desire that all my estate, both within doors and without, shall be equally divided between my three sons viz.
Solomon, Alfred and Phadon Perkins, on the youngest one of them arriving to lawful age, and in case either of them should die without issue, then his part to be and belong to the survivors of my sons, to them and their heirs. Item. All the remainder of my estate within doors and without, I leave to my beloved wife during her natural life, after my just debts are paid, she keeping my children clear of expense, and at the death of my wife, all the remainder of my estate to be equally divided amongst all my children, equally to them and their heirs.
Lastly, I nominate and appoint my beloved wife Edney Perkins my Executors and my friends Samuel Keeble and Thomas C. Verbee my Executors to this my last will and Testament, revoking all former wills by me made. The witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 7th day of October 1816.
