Dom. 1809.

Amos B. Bates

309 In the name of God Amen I William Robinson of Pope's Hatfield
Being in a low state of bodily health but of a perfect mind and memory Think to provide for my children and the necessity of my body's becoming That it is appointed for all men once to die do make and Ordain this my Last will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all I do commend my soul into God the Father of almighty God that gave It and my body I commend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian Burial at the discretion of my executor nothing detesting but at the general Resurrection I shall revive the same again by the mighty power of God that Gave it and as touching such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me
With in this life I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner
And first of all I Give unto my loving wife Elizabeth Robinson
One feather Bed and furniture and the rest of the property which she Owed before she was married likewise I Give unto my son Robert Robinson the plantation being Twenty five acres of land more or less
Where I now live house and all improvements there on likewise one
Bed and furniture likewise I Give unto my son John Robinson him
One Shilling likewise the rest of my property to be sold and all my Just debts paid and the remainder to be equally divided amongst My children Mary Litchy John Litchy Henry Robinson and Elizabeth Robinson likewise I make institute and Ordain William Robinson and Joseph Robinson sole executor of this my last
Will and Testament and I do hereby utterly disavow revoke Repeal annul voidable and every other former Testaments wills
Legacies bequests executors by me in any ways before written Made declared satisfying and performing this and no other to be My last will and Testament in witness whereof I have hereunto Set my hand and seal this the Twenty first day of April in The year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seven.
Signed sealed published pronounced and declared
By the said William Robinson as his last Will and Testament in presence of us who
In the presence of each other have here unto subscribed our names.
