 Just. Jas. Parrall C.C.

In the name of God Amm. I Robert Knowles of the County of Duplin being my wife in body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given to God, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die; do make and ordain this my last will and testament; that is to say principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial, at the discretion of my Executors: nothing doubting, but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of the same in the following form and manner. First I give and bequeath to Elizabeth my dearly beloved wife all my movable property together with the full possession of my lands and plantation all of which to be used toward the support of her and my children during her continuing my widow or until the children become of age, and then for the land to belong to Emanuel and James and all the movable property that is then to be found to be equally divided between Francis, Elizabeth and William. I likewise appoint and constitute James Knowles and Stephen Williams Executors to this my last will and testament I in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th April 1792. Signed, Sealed, published, pronounced, and declared by the said Robert Knowles as his last will and testament in the presence of us, who in the presence, and in presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names. Aaron Williams Joseph Williams, Daniel ^{his} _{mark} Bowden.
