Last Will & Testament of William M^c Cann

In the name of God, Amen. The 10th day of September, 1793, I, William M^c Cann Son of Duplin, being sick of body but of sound memory thank be to God therefore, and calling to mind the mortality of my body and that it is appointed for all flesh to die I do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following declaring this & this only to be my last will and testament, revoking all others by me heretofore made by writing or otherwise.

First I commend my soul to God that gave it me Hoping that I may receive a pardon of all my sins and a gracious reception through the merits of my Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. My body I commend to the Earth from whence it came to be buried in a decent and Christian-like manner without pomp or vanity at the discretion of my Executors hereafter to be named not doubting but I will be raised up in glory at the last day through the mighty power of Almighty God.

And as to what worldly Estate God has blessed me with I give and bequeath it in manner and form following after the payments of all my debts and funeral expenses.

First I give and bequeath to my son Nathaniel one hundred and twenty five acres of my land on Bealen formerly the property Henry Gustave McCullough to him and his heirs forever.

Secondly I give and bequeath to my Son William M^c Cann all my rights and
