April Term 1814.

This was the within will proved in open Court in due form of law by the oaths of Edward Armstrong and Amiram Everett the subscribing witnesses thereto. And at the same time John Hunter and Thomas Mc Gee two of the Executors named in the said will came before the Court and qualified as such according to law. Ordered that letters issue accordingly.

1st H<sup>r</sup> Dickson Esq.

In the Name of God Amen the first day of January 1775. I William Rogers of the County of Duplin and province of North Carolina planter being in a weak and lost state of health but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried at the discretion of my well beloved wife. Nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life I give demise and dispose of in the following manner and form. Imprimis I give and bequeath to comfort my dearly beloved wife all my lands and stock of every kind and all my household goods and working tools which at this time I am possessed with to be held or disposed of as she shall think right or me most fit for the
