In the name of the Holy and Glorious Trinity, God the father Son and Holy ghost. Amen I Thomas Raulledge Senr. of the County of Duplin, and State of North Carolina, at this time in my seventy third year, I have reason to be thankful to that God, who is merciful for prolonging my days and continuing my mental powers, at this time I find my self of perfect and disposing mind and memory.
First my will and desire is that after my death my body be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my executors who I shall hereafter name and after my just debts are paid which are — — and those of no great magnitude. I give and devise my estate in manner as followeth viz: I then I give to my son Thomas Raulledge eleven hundred and three acres of land or more or less in the state of Tennessee running on third tenon to be given to John Raulledge Cap. of Cumberland in this state for his ^{locating} locating and surveying the said land or in proportion of the value thereof if my said son should sell and dispose of the same, or should Dr William Dickson dispose of it as he is empowered to do in whose hands the grants are lodged. I then I give devise and bequeath to my grand son Thomas Routledge son of Thos Routledge the plantation on which I live containing in part of two ^{parcels} ~~five~~ ^{four} acres by estimation three hundred and twenty three acres together with the appurtenances thereto belonging, which shall inure to him and his heirs (which shall prove from the loins of his father in wedlock) for him or any of his heirs or assigns forever. I then I give and bequeath to my said grandson Thomas Routledge as aforesaid my negro woman Rachel and her son Tom and my negro girl Candice to him and his heirs as aforesaid forever. I then I give to my grand daughter Catharine Routledge my negro woman Diana and her son Peter to her and her heirs and assigns forever. - after the above bequeath my will and desire is that the remainder of my negroes (to wit) Jack young Pompey Sam Isaac and Fanny be hired out to the highest bidder from year to year for three years and the money arising therefrom to be expended in the support of Thomas Routledge and (my son) family at the discretion of my executor who are to hire out the above negroes, and after the expiration of 3rd year I give and bequeath said five negroes Jack young Pompey Sam Isaac & Fanny to my son Thomas Routledge his heirs and assigns forever - I further direct and desire that old Pompey be continued at the turpentine until the time that he is no longer to be fully done if my executor shall judge it expedient and the proceeds therefrom paid out to the best advantage for the benefit of the family aforesaid but if it should so happen that the turpentine should not proceed a sufficient profit the said Pompey to be hired out as the rest and his hire appropriated as the other hire, I also give to my son Thomas the said negro old Pompey after the expiration of three years as aforesaid. I then I will and desire that my daughter Sarah Liddow have ten pounds paid her by my executor, to be laid out in purchasing her a mourning suit. - further my will and desire is that the negro man Sam who is in my possession under mortgage from John Market be hired out as the other slave and the monies arising therefrom or used for him, or if the mortgage is taken up to be applied by my executor in paying debts or otherwise as necessity may require. I then I leave all my stock of horses cattle dogs crops sheep and to remain on the plantation for the use of my sons family together with my household furniture and plantation tools and provisions of every kind. I then I further give and bequeath to my son Thomas Routledge two hundred acres of land lying on persimmon swamp to him & his heirs and assigns forever. During the lightwood and timber to be disposed of as my executor may deem best and lastly I constitute and appoint my son Thomas Routledge and my step sons James and Edward Pearsall my executor in this my last will and testament and do disannul and make all other or former wills by me made in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th of August 1801. in presence of us signed sealed declared and delivered as the last will and testament of the testator in presence of us.
