April Term 1823

I Warren Blount of the State of North Carolina and Duplin County being in sound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament at the same time utterly revoking all former wills made by me. declaring this to be my last will & testament First I give to my wife eldest son David B. Newton Five dollars to her next oldest son say Julius Newton Five dollars. to her daughter Mary Eliza Newton Five dollars. now to her last set of children which is mine say to Mary Blount. I give Five dollars. To my daughter Elinor Blount I give five dollars. I give to my daughter Juliana Ann Blount Five dollars and if my wife should have another child by me which I think she will. I give to it five dollars and for it to share equally with the others in the division I give to my beloved wife Elinor Blount (Wife) to all the rest of my property

Warren Blount. whether real or personal whatso ever or where so ever except my interest in a negro girl Rose and a boy Sam I wish my interest to be sold in them and all such property as may be thought best to be penable property and the money approated to pay my just debts. I give this property to my wife to support herself and children and until my daughter Juliana Ann is 18 years old and for to school them till they can read & right well. I wish my wife to keep enough for her to live on comfortably. I particular wish the Lark car to be sold.

When my daughter ^{Juliana} Ann is 18 years old. I want my property to be divided equally between ~~them~~ my wife and her oldest children and mine only for her oldest children to have their land valued and with that I want them to be made equal with mine in the division if wife should see any chance to Exchange any of this property for land I wish her to do so and whatever purchase she makes let it be divided when the division is and as one of those children should marry before the division I want it to have two thirds of its proportionable part of its property when they marry to be given off to them
