Inscriptions from the family graveyard of Thomas Grimes of Edgecombe and Pitt counties, North Carolina.

Thomas Grimes, the son of William and Talitha (Mayo) Grimes, built his home on his plantation in the Coakley section of Edgecombe and Pitt counties, N.C. between the towns of Tarboro and Bethel. The old house, still standing, was built around 1820. The graveyard is a few yards left of the house, sheltered by a clump of very old oak trees. There is no fence but the graves are carefully preserved.

First grave:

Thomas Grimes, born March the 28th, 1805, died March the 7th 1884.
"The Memory of the Just is Blessed."

Second grave:

Nancy Best, wife of Thomas Grimes, born April 22nd 1808 died July the 1st 1866.
"He doeth all things well."

Third grave:

George P., son of Thomas and Nancy Grimes, born July thr 20th 1850, died March the 27th 1909.
"Blessed are the Meek for they shall inherit the Earth."

Fourth grave:

Nathan Mayo Grimes, son of Thomas and Nancy Grimes, born December the 8th died November 1st 1874.
"He died from the hands of an assassin." (see foot-note)

Foot-note: Nathan Mayo Grimes was killed by a negro during the days of Reconstruction in the South following the War between the States. The negro was afterwards caught and lynched by the Ku Klux Klan at the crossroads in Coakley.

RECORDS FROM THE FAMILY BIBLE OF WILLIAM GRIMES OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA.

( Original owner of the Bible was William Grimes, son of Thomas and Chloe Lewelling Grimes. Present owner Mrs. O.E. Longwell, Bethel, N.C. The following inscriptions were copied from the Bible by Mr. David L. McWhorter of Bethel, N.C. The Bible was printed in 1816 so records are doubtless copied from older source.)

Footnotes: Colonel Nathan Mayo, father of Talitha Mayo Grimes, served in the American Revolution as a lieutenant-colonel of the Martin County Militia of North Carolina. He married first Julia Williams, daughter of John Williams who died in Halifax County, N.C. in 1761. He married second Elizabeth Hyman, widow of Thomas Hyman, who survived him after his death in 1811.

The father of Asa Jones, W. Frederick Jones, also served in the Revolutionary War. He married Elizabeth Best, daughter of John Best, another Revolutionary veteran.

Chloe Llewelling, wife of Thomas Grimes and mother of William Grimes, owner of the Bible, was the daughter of William and Frances Llewelling of Martin and Tyrrell counties, North Carolina. Chloe Llewelling Grimes' brother was Captain John Llewelling, foremost Tory in Martin County. The Llewelling family, with strong roots in England and large holdings in the colonies held firm in their allegiance to the English King. In a deposition made before Governor Richard Caswell, Captain John Llewelling testified that among other things his firm belief in the then existing Church of England in America, and that this religion would perish in America should the colonists win, held him in his faith to Great Britain. )
