When I returned to the Cape last night to the Carolina camp, I had a long but fruitless search for this day made under a clear blue sky and with most favorable winds. I was never allowed to go south. I found that all my first shells had in fact together with my first specimens.

 to mind the contents of a certain will and testament, and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I am a free and decent person. My name is John C. Beaufort, and I am of the County of Beaufort and State of North Carolina.

Second, I do hereby certify, and declare, that out of the sum of money which he received from my father and mother, I have paid and all other just bills.

Third, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I have bequeathed all my personal estate, of all my household and kitchen furniture and all my clothing, beds, bedding, books & prints, also all my money, to my wife, the said Beaufort, in and to the said Beaufort, and she should they ever pay anything in a year or from any other source whatsoever.

Fourth, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I have bequeathed to my sisters Sarah and Elizabeth, during their life time, after their death the same is a question to my brother Abraham Beaufort.
 I have no other heirs, and after his death to his heirs.

Fifth, I do hereby certify, and declare, that at my death, my sisters above named in this my will, to sell the above mentioned houses and lot that they are the same, the proceeds of such sale to be put on interest, and the interest of the same to be paid to them during their life time, after their death the interest to be paid to my brother Abraham Beaufort, so long as he lives, and after his death the principal and what interest should remain is to be divided between his heirs.

Sixth, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I have bequeathed to my wife, the said Beaufort, so long as she lives, my sisters will select each of us personal property as they shall see fit, and in need of, to be sold at public sale, to pay the same.

Seventh, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I have bequeathed to my nephew Charles Edward Beaufort.

Eighth, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I have bequeathed to my wife, the said Beaufort, so long as she lives, all those of my books, papers, or other articles, in which the names of the persons to whom they are presented, have been written by myself.

Ninth, I do hereby certify, and declare, that I have appointed my friend John C. Beaufort, my nephew, and all my heirs and assigns,
