C. L. Wilson Clerk
Superior Court

North Carolina } In the superior Court Gaston County }

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and testament of Albert Bradley deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the superior Court for said County by J. A. Gullick, the Executor therein mentioned, and the due Execution thereof by the said Albert Bradley is proved by the oath and Examination of S. M. Robinson and Frank Robinson the subscribing witnesses thereto who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and testament of Albert Bradley that the said Albert Bradley, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of the said paper-writing, now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 28th day of October 1893. And the deponent further swears that the said Albert Bradley, the testator aforesaid died at the time and place

28th day of October 1893. And the deponent further Smith that the said Allick Bradley, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further Smith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name at the end of said last Will as aforesaid and at the time of deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Allick Bradley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent.
And further, these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed this 4th day of June 1894. before me
