

North Carolina, Gaston

I, Annie Jenkins, the wife of the late Joseph Jenkins, deceased, of the foresaid county and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.:

First: My Executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts out of the first money which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and bequeath to my daughter Lavina Dixon the wife of John R. Dixon, one hundred and ninety dollars to be paid by my executor within two years from the date of my death out of the money belonging to my estate not otherwise disposed of, also all other property that I may have at my death.

Third: I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend John R. Dixon my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.
