

North Carolina } In the Probate Court
 Gaston County } May 25th 1881

David Lombast

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Lombast deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by Jane Lombast widow and devisee, therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said David Lombast was proved by the Oath and examination of J. H. Booth and J. A. Lay the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, And each for himself deposeth and says that he is a subscribing to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Lombast - that the said David Lombast in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 26th day of April 1881.

And the Deponent further says, That the said David Lombast the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto.

Paper-writing. Which is now Shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 26th day of April 1881.

And the Deponent further says. That the said David Lombust the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper-writing to be his Last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting Witness thereto. And at the request and in the presence of the said testator, And this deponent further says that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said Will as aforesaid. And at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting Witness thereto. as aforesaid the said David Lombust was of Sound Mind and Memory, of full age to execute a Will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

It is therefore Considered by the Court that the said Paper-writing and every part thereof, is the Last Will and Testament of the said David Lombust. And the same is Ordered to be recorded and filed.
