

Last Will of Eliza C. Quinn.

I, Eliza C. Quinn being of sound mind and disposing memory but in feeble health and mindful of death, committing my body and soul into the hands of our Merciful Heavenly Father who gave them, do make this my last Will and Testament concerning my earthly affairs.

First I will that my Executor herein after named shall give my body burial suitable and proper to my station in life and pay for the same and any just debts that I may owe out of the first money that may come into his hands as such Executor.

Second. I devise and bequeath to my sister in law Mary Hoffman and her four children Lema, Lena, Sarah and Fred. Children of my brother Frederick, and to my sister Dorcas Davis and her six children and to the eight children of Caleb Rhodes, by my sister Myra, to wit, Eliza, Julia, Jane, Emma, Lavinia, John, Luther and Willie, and to the five children of James Andrew Quinn the sum of Twenty Five Dollars ^{$25.00}, each.

Third. I devise and bequeath to Mrs. Aggie Quinn and her two sons William and John Quinn Five Dollars each.

Fourth. I devise and bequeath to Philadelphia Lutheran Church. Ten Dollars, if any thing be left after paying the above mentioned legacies.

Fifth. All the rest and residue of my Estate of what kind or name, I give and bequeath to my nephew John F. Linberger and his wife Eliza Linberger and I hereby constitute and appoint said John F. Linberger and bequeath to my nephew John F. Lininger and his wife Eliza Lininger and I hereby constitute and appoint said John F. Lininger to be the Executor of this my last Will and testament revoking all other Will that may have heretofore been made by me. Witness my hand and seal. This 16th day of January 1892.

Eliza E. Quinn (Seal)
