

The State of South Carolina,
County of York.

I, George L. Riddle of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make this my last will and testament:

1st. I will and direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid out of my estate by my Executor hereinafter named.

2nd. I will bequeath and devise the whole of my estate, Real, Personal and mixed, wherever the same may be located or situated, whether in this State or elsewhere, to my dearly beloved and devoted wife Mary J. Riddle for and during the term of her natural life, and at her death, my said entire estate, Real, Personal and mixed, shall become vested in fee simple in the following persons, my grandsons and granddaughters, and children of my beloved son, Robert B. Riddle, namely, Howard Riddle, Margaret Helen Riddle, Joseph Springs Riddle, Robert Sage Riddle, Martha E. Riddle and John Albert Riddle, share and share alike, (the child or children of a child of the said Robert B. Riddle, who may predecease my wife Mary J. Riddle to stand and take in the place of his, her or their parents) to them and their heirs forever, but charged nevertheless with the liberal support and maintenance of my son Robert B. Riddle, and of my said son's wife Nancy J. G. Riddle for and during the terms of their respective natural lives; and further charged with a Special Legacy in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars which I will and bequeath to my Grand son Frank C. Riddle of Yorkville, S.C., which my grandsons and granddaughters, and children of my beloved son, Robert B. Riddle, namely, Howard Riddle, Margaret Helen Riddle, Joseph Springs Riddle, Robert Sage Riddle, Martha E. Riddle and John Albert Riddle, share and share alike, (the child or children of a child of the said Robert B. Riddle, who may predecease my wife Mary J. Riddle to stand and take in the place of his, her or their parents) to them and their heirs forever, but charged nevertheless with the liberal support and maintenance of my son Robert B. Riddle, and of my said son's wife Nancy J. G. Riddle for and during the terms of their respective natural lives; and further charged with a Special Legacy in the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars which I will and bequeath to my Grand son Frank C. Riddle of Yorkville, S. C., which said legacy my executor is directed to pay to my said Grand Son on the death of my wife and on his attaining his majority. Should my grand son Frank C. Riddle predecease my wife or die before attaining his majority my executor shall distribute the legacy of Fifteen Hundred Dollars provided for him on the conditions named, equally between the children above named of my son Robert B. Riddle, share and share alike, the child or children of a child of the said Robert B. Riddle, who shall predecease my wife and my grandson Frank C. Riddle, to take in the place of his, her or their parent.

3rd. I hereby appoint my son Robert B. Riddle Executor of this my last will and Testament, and reposing full confidence in his integrity and in his ability to manage my estate, I will and devise that he give no bond for the faithful discharge of his duties, and for the management of my estates committed to his care, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by me made, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal to this my last will and testament- this 27th day of February A. D. 1903.
