

State of North Carolina and County of CLEVELAND.

I, John E. Gray, of Waco, N.C., being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make and publish this as and for my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void every and all other will or wills by me at any time heretofore made. And first I direct my executor hereinafter named to pay all my just and honest debts, funeral expenses and the expense incident to the administration of my estate as soon as reasonably may be after my decease.

Item 1st. I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Dora all my personal property and all my real estate whatsoever to hold the same to her, her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns absolutely forever. She is to dispose of the said personal property and real estate in any manner or way that she may deem best for her own well being.

Item IIInd. I wish to further state in connection with my will that a certain claim that one Carl Pool holds against my estate is unjust; therefore I here and now protest against the payment of same by my executor as hereinafter named.

Item IIIrd. I do hereby nominate my wife Dora Gray to be the Executor of this my last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 26th day of Feb. 1906.
