

State of North Carolina,
Gaston County.

I, Mary Lavina Glenn wife of W.M. Glenn of the State of North Carolina; and the County of Gaston, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of human life, do hereby make and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following, to-wit:

Item- I hereby devise to my daughter Label Poovey, wife of Rev. W.E. Poovey, and to my daughter Edna Stroup $\frac{3}{5}$ (three fifths) of the land which I inherited from my father and situated in Crowders Mountain Township in the County of Gaston whereon my brother James Hill now lives, and in case the land should be sold, I give and bequeath to my said two daughters $\frac{3}{5}$ (three fifths) of the purchase money.

Item- I hereby devise to my remaining three children Mary, Annie Laura, and Sarah, the other $\frac{2}{5}$ (two fifths) of the said land share and share alike and in case it should be sold then to the three to receive two fifths of the purchase money share and share alike.

Item- I hereby constitute and appoint my husband W.M. Glenn Trustee for those of my children that are not of age to manage and control the land left them, and in the event of its being sold to receive the money and expend it on their education and in such other way as shall be necessary.

Item- I hereby devise to my remaining three children, Sarah, the other $\frac{2}{5}$ (two fifths) of the said land share and share alike and in case it should be sold then to the three to receive two fifths of the purchase money share and share alike.

Item- I hereby constitute and appoint my husband W.M. Glenn Trustee for those of my children that are not of age to manage and control the land left them, and in the event of its being sold to receive the money and expend it on their education and in such other way as shall be necessary.

Item- I constitute and appoint my husband W.M. Glenn, Executor to this my last will and testament and request that he be not required to give any bond as such.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of June A. D. 1909.

Mary L. Glenn

(Seal)

The above instrument was subscribed by Mrs Mary Lavina Glenn the testator in the presence of each of us and was at the same time declared by her to be her last will and testament and we at her request, in her presence and in the presence of each other signed our names hereto as witnesses.

In the Superior Court,

In the Matter of the last will of Mary L. Glenn.

It appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of R. B. Riddle and Geo. A. Sparrow the subscribing witnesses thereto,, that the paper writing propounded by the Executor therein named, is the last will and testament of Mary L. Glenn and that the same was duly executed by the said Mary L. Glenn in the presence of said witnesses and that at the time of signing the same the said Mary L. Glenn was of sound mind. It is thereupon adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said Mary L. Glenn and the Executor therein named qualify as such.

This the 1st day of December, 1909.

C. C. Cornwell, Clerk Superior Court.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, John Eaker, being of sound mind, and fairly good health, make this
