In presence of

John Adams

Wm Adams

State of North Carolina } In the Probate Court
Gaston County } January 25th 1883.

A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Naomi E. Love, deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by Samuel M. Wilson. And it appears to the satisfaction of the Court, that Said Testatrix Naomi E. Love and the two Subscribing Witnesses to said Will, viz: John Adams and Williams are all dead, the due execution of said Last Will and Testament by the said Naomi E. Love, was duly proven before me by the Oath and examination of Joseph Gamble, Samuel Service and Samuel M. Wilson. And the said Samuel Service being duly sworn doth depose and say for himself that he knows that the said John Adams and William Adams whose names appear as attesting Witnesses to said Will are both dead, that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of each of said Subscribing Witnesses and that he believes that the name of each of said Subscribing Witness as it appears upon said Will is in the proper handwriting of said Subscribing Witness, and the said Joseph Gamble being duly sworn says that he knows the handwriting of William Adams and believes his signature as a Subscribing Witness to said Will to be in the proper handwriting of the said William Adams. And that the said William Adams is dead, And the said Samuel M. Wilson being duly sworn deposes and says that he knows the said Naomi E. Love Testatrix as aforesaid to be dead, that he is well acquainted with her handwriting and that he believes her signature

And the Said Samuel McWilson being duly sworn deposes and says that he knows the said Naomi E. Love, testatrix as aforesaid to be dead, that he is well acquainted with her handwriting and that he believes her signature at the end of said Will is in the proper handwriting of the said Naomi E. Love. It is therefore Considered by the Court that said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of the said Naomi E. Love. And the same is Ordered to be recorded and filed.

And thereupon Samuel McWilson is duly appointed and qualifies as Administrator with the Will annexed, by taking & subscribing to the Oath required by law, and filing bond in the sum of One hundred dollars, with S.P. Service and Jacob Riser as sureties thereto, and taking the necessary Letter of Administration with the Will annexed.
