

In the name of God, Amen:-

I Nathaniel P. Farrar of the County Gaston and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make and declare this to be my last will and Testament, That is to say: First, after all my lawful debts are paid, the residue of my estate real and personal, I give, bequeath and dispose of as follows, to-wit:

First- To my beloved wife Cornelia, I give possession and control of all my land during the term of her natural life and I also leave my personal property in her possession to be divided among our children in the way she may choose or think best; but it must be understood that she can not sell or in any manner dispose of her lifetime interest in the said land without the consent of my daughter Fma, and Etta and Eunice.

Second- To my daughter Anna Hoover I give the west end of the tract known as the Tate land supposed to be eight and one half acres, more or less.

Third- I give to my son Lawrence the East end of the said tract known as the Tate land, supposed to be eight and one half acres, more or less.

Fourth- I give to my daughter Emma, twenty six acres of land including the buildings, that is the residence, barn and out houses near thereto, and there is also included in this gift to Emma the right to make her

Fourth- I give to my daughter Emma, twenty six acres of land including the buildings, that is the residence, barn and out houses near thereto, and there is also included in this gift to Emma the right to make her home with her mother.

Fifth- I give to my daughter Etta twenty six acres of land, adjoining that given to Emma and Eunice.

...I give to my daughter Eunice twenty six acres of land, adjoining that given to Emma and Etta and I also give her my horse.

Seventh- I give to my son Conard thirteen acres of land, more or less, bounded as follows: Beginning on the old line where it crosses the branch leading from near the barn in the direction of Rumfelt's residence then with the Rumfelt line to a poplar W.C. Cansler's corner, then with Cansler's line 34 poles, then parallel to the first line to a point near the head of said branch, then down the said branch to the beginning.

And Lastly- I give to wife fifty dollars in cash, and to my daughter Emma, fifty dollars in cash, and to my daughter Etta fifty dollars in cash, and to my daughter Eunice fifty dollars in cash.

Likewise I constitute and appoint my wife Executrix of this my last will and testament. In Witness Whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, this the 13th day of June, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seven.

N. P. Farrar
