

Gaston County.

I, R. C. G. Love, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, that is to say:

Item One. I hereby give and ^{devise} ~~devide~~ to my beloved wife, Susan E. Love, absolutely, my home place upon which I now reside, and all household and kitchen furniture and other personal property of every description, used in or about said place, including live stock, vehicles &c. I also give and bequeath to my said wife a policy of insurance on my life for about $2700.00 in the New York Life Insurance Company and payable to her.

Also one thousand dollars in cash to be paid to her by my Executors

Item 2. I will and direct that my Executors hereinafter named sell all the residue of my property, both real and personal wheresoever situated; collect and reduce to money all my classes of property in action, and divide the proceeds arising from such sales and collections equally between my six children, Jas. L. Love, M. E. Tait, Jno. F. Love, Edgar Love, Mary Love and R. A. Love. Provided further that my brother, A. J. Love, shall have the right to occupy my farm in Texas on which he now lives during his life time free of rents.

And I do hereby constitute and appoint my sons J. F. Love and Edgar Love the Executors of this will; hereby vesting in them full power and authority to dispose of the property described in Item Second of this will, either at private or public sale, and upon such terms and conditions as to them may seem best for my estate.

In Witness Whereof, I the said R. C. G. Love, do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 25th day of December, 1903.

R. C. G. Love

(Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the within named R. C. G. Love as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses the year and day above written.

Witness My hand and official seal, this the 14th day of February, 1907.

C. C. Cornwell,

Clerk Superior Court, Gaston County, N. C.

State of North Carolina,

In the Superior Court,

Gaston County.

In the Matter of the last will of R. C. G. Love.

It appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of T. W. Wilson and J. F. McArver the subscribing witnesses thereto, that the paper writing propounded by the Executor therein named, is the last will and testament of R. C. G. Love and that the same was duly executed by said R. C. G. Love in the presence of said witnesses and that at the time of signing the same the said R. C. G. Love was of sound mind. It is thereupon adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said R. C. G. Love and the Executor therein named qualify as such.

This the 14th day of February, 1907.

C. C. Cornwell,

Clerk Superior Court.
