29th year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.

R. Y. H. Nance,

Judge of Probate of Anderson County, S. C.

The State of South Carolina,

County of Anderson.

I do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last Will of the within named Rufus S. Hill deceased, so far as I know or believe, and that I will well and truly execute the same by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in said will, so far as his goods and chattels will thereunto extend and the law charge me, and that I will make a true and perfect inventory of all such goods and chattels.
So help me God.

Emma M. Hill.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 13th day of Jan. in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and five.

R. Y. H. Nance,

Judge of Probate of Anderson County, S. C.

I, W.P. Nicholson, Clerk of the Probate Court in Anderson County, in the State of South Carolina, do hereby certify that Rufus S. Hill, late a resident of said County, is dead, leaving a last will and testament, and I further certify that the paper writing hereto attached is a copy the said last will and testament, of the said Rufus S. Hill deceased, that the said will was duly proven in this Court by the oath and examination of J. Boyce Burriss, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who deposed and said that the said Rufus S. Hill signed the said will in his presence and in the presence of Geo. E. Paine and J. L. Tribble and that they as subscribing witnesses signed their names thereto in the presence of the said Rufus S. Hill, testator, and that at the time of the execution of the said will in the County of Anderson, State of South Carolina, that the said Rufus S. Hill was a resident of the said County and State and was of sound and disposing mind and memory, and declared that the paper signed by him and witnessed as aforesaid was his last will and testament.

Witness my hand and official seal, this the first day of May, 1905.

W. P. Nicholson,

Clerk of Probate Court, Anderson County.
