State of North Carolina, In the Probate Court
Caswell County } August 26th 1882.

A paper-writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel Thomas deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by Wm. R. Thomas & John F. Thomas the executors therein mentioned. And the due execution thereof by the said Samuel Thomas, was duly proven by the oath & examination of P. M. Oates and J. R. Oates two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeseth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Samuel Thomas, that the said Samuel Thomas, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and bears date of the 8th day of March 1877. And the deponent further saith, that the said Samuel Thomas, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament. And this deponent did therupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto. And this deponent further saith that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Samuel Thomas was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

It is therefore considered, by the Court, that the said paper-writing and every part thereof, is the last Will and Testament of the said Samuel Thomas deceased, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

the said Samuel Thomas, and the full execution thereof by the Said Samuel Thomas, was duly proven by the Oath & Examination of F. M. Oates and J. R. Oates, two of the Subscribing Witnesses thereto.
Who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself afforseth and saith, that he is a Subscribing Witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the Last Will & Testament of Samuel Thomas, that the Said Samuel Thomas, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, aged ~~beams~~ date of the 8th day of March 1877.
And the deponent further saith, That the Said Samuel Thomas, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his Last Will and Testament. And this deponent did thenupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an Attesting Witness thereto. And this deponent further saith that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said Last Will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an Attesting Witness thereto, as aforesaid, the Said Samuel Thomas was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

It is therefore Considered, by the Court, that the Said paper-writing and every part thereof, is the Last Will and Testament of the Said Samuel Thomas deceased, and the same is Ordered to be recorded and filed.

And, thereupon Wm. R. Thomas and John F. Thomas, the Executors therein named, as aforesaid, duly qualified as such by taking and subscribing to the Oath required by law, and taking Letters testamentary thereon, This 26th day of August 1882,

J. B. White, Probate Judge.
