

North Carolina,

Gaston County.

I, Susan Emeline Costner, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

1. My Executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts out of the first monies which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

2. I give and devise to P. A. Summey and P. D. Summey and Fannie Dellinger widow of Lee Dellinger, all of my property of every description both real personal and mixed, share and share alike.

3. My Executor hereinafter named, shall purchase and place at my grave suitable tombstones and pay for same out of the proceeds from the sale of my property.

4. I hereby constitute and appoint my nephew, P. A. Summey, my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness whereof I, the said Susan Emeline Costner, do hereunto set

In the Superior Court,

In the Matter of the last will of Emeline Costner.
It appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of M.L. Cornwell and Mrs-
M.L. Cornwell, the subscribing witnesses thereto, that the paper writing propounded by the Executor therein named, is the last will and testament of Emeline Costner, and that the same was duly executed by said Emeline Costner in the presence of said witnesses and that at the time of signing the same the said Emeline Costner was of sound mind. It is thereupon adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said Emeline Costner, and the Executor therein named qualify as such.
This the 21st day of January, 1915.

U. C. Cornwell, Clerk Superior Court.
