

North Carolina,
Gaston County.

I, William D. Hanna of aforesaid county and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of this my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

1. My Executrix hereinafter named, shall pay my funeral expenses, together with all my just debts out of the first moneys which may come into her hands belonging to my estate.

2. I give to my wife, Harriet Hanna, the tract of land on which I now reside; also all other property both real and personal which I may own at time of my death together with all debts which may be owing to me, this making my said wife my sole heir as to my said estate.

3. I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Harriet Hanna, my lawful Executrix, to execute this my last Will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, hereby revoking and declaring void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made:

In witness whereof, I, the said William D. Hanna do hereunto set my hand, this 8th day of February, 1902.

W. D. Hanna (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said William D. Hanna to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

In witness whereof, I, the said William D. Hanna do hereunto set my hand this 8th day of February, 1902.

W. D. Hanna (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said William D. Hanna to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

In the Superior Court.

In The Matter of the Last Will of William D. Hanna.

It appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of E. F. Wilson and W. Y. Warren, the subscribing witnesses thereto, that the paper writing propounded by the Executor therein named, is the last will and testament of William D. Hanna and that the same was duly executed by said William D. Hanna in the presence of said witnesses and that at the time of signing the same the said William D. Hanna was of sound mind. It is thereupon adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said William D. Hanna and the Executor therein named qualify as such.

This the 6th day of June, 1908.

C. C. Cornwell,

Clerk Superior Court.
