

In the named God, Amen, I Wm S. Dickson being of sound mind and disposing mind & memory, but remembering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this to be my last Will & Testament in manner and form as follows, viz, First-I bequeath to my grand daughter Rosanna Jane Dickson one bed, Second I bequeath to my grand daughter Sarah Dickson one bed, Third I bequeath to my son A.C. Dickson my working tools, Fourth I bequeath to my grand daughter Mary Ann Dickson my bureau, 5th I bequeath to my son John I. Dickson my cupboard & clock & that he Execute this my Will, August 18th 1867. William ^{his} S. Dickson make,

Test-J. M. Hanna,

North Carolina | In Probate Court Sept-16, 1870. This day the foregoing Will of Gaston County | William S. Dickson dec'd was offered in said Court for Probate by John
I. Dickson the Executor therein named, & upon the oath & Examination of the subscribing witness thereto J. M. Hanna, & upon the oath & Examination of the therein named Executor J. I. Dickson the said Will was proven to be the last Will & Testament of said Wm S.
Dickson dec'd late of Gaston County, is probated and ordered to be recorded, and thereupon said Executor duly qualified Executor to Execute said Will, and took letter Testamentary.
C. H. Withers Probate Judge of Gaston County,

I, Dorcas J. Jones of the County of Gaston & State of North Carolina. being of sound mind and memory. But considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, I