I, Allen Hardy of the County of Greene and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory; but becoming advanced in years and afflicted in body, and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and constitute this my last Will and Testament:

First—

My soul I commend to God who gave it, my body to my friends for decent burial—head and feet in separate pieces to be placed at my tomb.

Second

After my burial expenses and my just debts are paid it is my will, that the following disposition should be made of the balance of my property

Item 1st

To my grand-daughters, Martha and Mary Hardy Children of my son Cornelius I give and bequeath the sum of five dollars each.

" 2nd

To my grand-children Franklin, Lelia, Oliver, John Stanley, Jesse, Lucinda and Biram Elias—

" 3rd

Children of my daughter Nancy Hart, I give and bequeath one hundred dollars each to be paid to them in U. S. currency

" 4th

To my son Allen M. Hardy I give and bequeath two hundred and fifty dollars and my watch. To my daughter Nancy Hart I give and bequeath one mule, if I have the same in possession at my death, and if not then one hundred dollars over

Item 5th

to buy one. Should I have that much on hand at my death -
 To my daughter Morina Frizzle I give and bequeath one mule, one cow and calf. Should they be in my possession at my death - if not then one hundred and fifteen dollars if found in my possession.

6th

To my daughter Emily McGlohorn I give and bequeath one mule and one cow and calf. Should they be found in my possession at death; if not then one hundred and fifteen dollars if found in my possession.

7th

To my Son F. H. Hardy I give and bequeath one cow and calf, one large mahogany table that sits in the parlor, one parlor carpet and one bed and its furniture - if I have not the cow and calf at my death then fifteen dollars in lieu of the same. Of all the above named articles bequeathed I give them before my death then such items one mule and cart.

8th

After satisfying the above items and paying my burial expenses it is my Will and desire that the residue of my property be sold for cash to the highest bidder and equally distributed among my surviving children Whitmill, Allen H. Eppenhart, Edwin, and F. H. Hardy, Morina Frizzle, Henry Hart and Emily McGlohorn except my clothing which I wish to be divided among my surviving sons.

The balance of notes and money found after satisfying all; but Item 9th. I wish to be divided among my children, Allen H. Hardy, Whitmill Hardy, Edwin Hardy, F. H. Hardy, Eppenhart Hardy, Morina Frizzle, Henry Hart, and Emily McGlohorn share and share alike.

I hereby appoint and constitute my two sons Allen H. Hardy and Whitmill Hardy, executors to this my last Will and Testament. This September 3rd 1869

In the name of God, Amen.

I Elizabeth A. Harris of the County of Greene and State of North Carolina being weak, and fallen in body but of sound mind and disposing memory, and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life; do hereby (making all other heretofore made) make, and publish this my last will and testament in manner, and form as follows, to wit:

Item 1st My desire is that after death my friends, and relations will provide for my remains a decent burial suitable to their wishes and that my executor hereafter named shall pay all necessary expenses accruing therefor, as also all of my just debt to whomsoever due, and all expenses arising from the settlement of my estate, and also a set of tombstones for each of my parents' graves, and my own with such inscriptions and devices thereon as may be deemed suitable, and approved by my surviving relatives, and friends, out of the monies arising from the sale of any property not bequeathed, or devised by this will, or with money left on hand at my death.

Item 2^d - I give and bequeath unto my beloved son Jacky Ann Ellis, one marble slab bureau one bed and furniture, one silver watch, and one silver casket to her and her heirs in fee simple forever.

Item 3^d I give, and bequeath unto my grand niece Eveline Vernalson my entire tract of land as described by notes and bounds in the last will, and testament of my Father (Plea Daniel dec'd) and I also bequeath unto her one bed, and furniture and all of my bed clothing of every description not heretofore disposed of, but will and desire is that my brother George W. Daniel shall have, and enjoy, all the use and benefit of that portion of my land intrusted within, and covered by my apple orchard during his lifetime, and no longer. And my desire is that if he said Eveline Vernalson should die without issue, or before she arrives at the age of twenty one years, then and in that case that her mother (my beloved wife Cordelia Vernalson) shall take her place, and have the property during her natural life, and after her death be divided equally between all of her children then and then alive. And I hereby constitute, and appoint my trustworth friend, and relative Seth Lyson guardian or trustee for the said Eveline Vernalson, whom I desire to take possession of the land as soon as practicable, and hold the same in trust for her sole benefit; and manage the same by leasing, or renting, or cultivating as in his discretion, and good judgment he may deem most promotive to her interest during her minority or minority.

Item 4th My desire is that after my death my executor hereafter named shall as soon as practicable sell for cash all the balance of my property of every description not bequeathed or devised by this will, and appropriate the proceeds thereof to the objects mentioned in the first item of this will and should there remain any surplus after satisfying said demands my desire is that it shall be paid over by my executor to the guardian or trustee of the said Eveline Vernalson, and invested by him solely for her use, and benefit, and if the property sold should be insufficient to satisfy said demands my desire is that my executor should send out the land and apply the proceeds thereof to that purpose until the same is discharged.

And lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my
