Last Will
and Testament of

I, Angelina Hane being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of life do make and declare this my last will and testament.
First: After the payment of my burial expenses it is my will and desire that my sister Smithy L. Hane shall have all of my property of every description, including bed, bedstead, room wheels and all other articles of personal property now owned by me or any other property that may come to me from my father's estate and I so will and bequeath the same to her in fee simple absolute. I so will and bequeath my property, to my sister Smithy L. Hane in consideration of the fact that during my recent and present afflictions, and sickness that she and her family have so kindly cared for me. To carry out and execute this my will I hereby appoint Spices Hane my executor, and I hereby revoke all former wills. Witness my hand and this 3rd May 1890. Angelina Hane.

We the undersigned hereby certify that we sign this paper writing as witnesses at the request of and in the presence of the testator, and we believe her to be of sound and disposing mind at the time of her signing the same. This May 3rd 1890.
