State of North Carolina } ss. In the Superior Court.
Greene County

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of Cora L. Jordan, deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of Superior Court for said County by W. James Jordan, the executor therein named and the due execution thereof by the said Cora L. Jordan by oath and affirmation of Jas. T. Sugg, J. N. Lindsay the subscribing witnesses, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and Testament of Cora L. Jordan that the said Cora L.

Jordan in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said ^{paper} writing which is shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 27th day of December 1905.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Cora L. Jordan the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and executed to be her last will and Testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix, and this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said Cora L. Jordan was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: and further these deponents say not.

James T. Sugg.
