Greene County

I, F. B. Dixon, of said County of Greene being of sound mind and memory, among his people meet, and considering of life do make, constitute, publish and declare this my last will and Testament in manner and form following: I do say:

My executor I name of the name of my dear wife hers-

I have in the deposition of my beloved wife Fannie R. Dixon, as my children, who are all now of legal age, and of sound mind and memory, and who are all of the same blood and lineage, provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, pay all funeral expenses to them with all my just debts, and any other debts or monies that may come into her hands as a part or parcel of my estate.
 It is my will and desire that my beloved wife Fannie R. Dixon shall hold, use, occupy and enjoy my entire estate, both real and personal, as I have done heretofore, to care for my children in the same way during her natural life - with power to dispose of any surplus stock or farming implements - She may find it unnecessary in carrying on the farm - and apply the proceeds of such sale to the support of herself and family - To have no part or share of my property to be as her heirs or assigns may desire to have in the management of my estate and children, with authority, at her death if any of our children should be minors, to choose for them a guardian to take charge of their portion of my estate And lastly I do constitute and appoint my beloved wife Fannie R. Dixon, my lawful executrix to see into and pursue to execute this my Last Will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I the said F. W. Dixon do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 4 day of January, 1882.
